GUIDELINES FOR SUCCESS

Guidelines

1. Be Respectful

2. Be Responsible

3. Be Safe

Nooksack Valley Middle School students are subject to a code of behavior, not only for their own benefit, but for the benefit of others as well. Education in the classroom and a proper climate throughout the building is dependent upon students, staff members, and parents being accountable.

Nooksack Valley Middle School is alcohol, drug, and tobacco free. Every effort will be made to ensure a drug and alcohol free environment.

Nooksack Valley Middle School students are responsible for their own actions and are accountable for all rules and responsibilities outlined in this handbook, the Nooksack Valley School District Board of Director's policies, and other rules set forth by the Nooksack Valley Middle School Administration. Students who do not meet expectations will be subject to consequences in order to promote accountability. It is important to remember that while our guidelines establish rules and limits, it also encourages, promotes and recognizes specific, positive behaviors.

Communication Home Parental involvement is an important key in helping students be successful at school. Students are given the responsibility of bringing home , all written communication from the school, their teams, and/or teachers.

Notes Home is a newsletter that the middle school sends home monthly. It is a constant source of information for events, dates, and opportunities for both the student and the parent. The newsletter is also available online on our school web site, www.nooksackschools.org. Grades and missing assignments can be viewed online through Skyward on the Family Access Code. Please contact office for login info if needed.

Use of Skateboards, personal listening devices, cameras, Ipods, and other electronic equipment are not allowed during school hours and could be subject to confiscation. Telephones Students may use the school phone for school business or emergencies. Cell phones may used before and after school, and at lunch in the cafeteria or outside play areas. This does not include the main halls or the gym, nor during any passing time between classes.

(Adult prices charged without ASB card.)

*Required to run for office or to participate in activities and athletics.

School Leadership, Activities, and Athletics. Involvement in extracurricular activities at Nooksack Valley Middle School is a privilege, not a right. Pioneer Level System NVMS promotes an atmosphere where students are free to learn. We encourage students to display appropriate behavior with special recognition incentives. The Pioneer Level system is not a discipline system in itself, it is a system to motivate positive, responsible behaviors and to discourage negative actions by our students. It is in support to our general policies and procedures. The Pioneer Level system is composed of two levels: Pioneer Level One: All students start each trimester on Pioneer Level One. Students remain on this level if they maintain a 'clean slate' and receive no honor level infractions. Pioneer Level One students are eligible for special activities and events. Pioneer Level rewards will be handed out at the end of each month for those students on PL 1 for the entire month.

Students who maintain this status for an entire trimester will be eligible for a PIONEER HONOR LEVEL activity at the end of the term.

Pioneer Level Drop: Students drop from Pioneer Level One for an infraction of the NVMS Guidelines for Success or any policy outlined in this handbook. Students on Pioneer Level Drop are restricted from all Pioneer Level One events and may be restricted from all other school activities and athletics. Those on Pioneer Level Drop have the opportunity to work their way back to Pioneer Level One by observing classroom and school expectations and by maintaining a 'clean slate' for two weeks. Students will be notified regularly of their honor level status. Students who remain on Pioneer Level Drop for an extended period of time will be placed on an individual behavior contract; violation of the contract could result in more severe steps.

Retention Policy Students who average 14 points or less per trimester will be retained for the following school year. Those students who have averaged 14 points or less have not demonstrated a mastery of their grade level content and are in need of additional schooling. Those students will have the opportunity of moving on to the next grade level if they complete and pass the summer school program. Students who average from 14 to 16 points per trimester will be on the recommended list for summer school. These students have performed below grade level standard and would benefit from additional schooling. The point averages are calculated by adding up the scores for each trimester and dividing them by the total number of classes.

GUIDELINES FOR SUCCESS

Building and Classroom Behavior /Discipline guidelines and process :

As part of our restorative behavior process at NVMS, the following steps will be used by staff for any issues or actions that are considered disruptive to the educational process or behavioral violations to NVSD, and State policies.

- Step 1 - Conversation between student and teacher utilizing a Think Sheet , which is a self reflective writing piece for accountability , ownership, and next steps.
- Step 2 - Revisit the Think Sheet with a second conversation and collaboration by student and same teacher to rectify issues or actions.
- Step 3 - Administrative assistance with 3rd conversation with the same teacher. Pioneer Honor Level Drop, Parents notified, All 3 sheets mailed home with referral.
- Step 4 - Administrative referral, parent contact and meeting arranged .

Note: These steps are part of a process with the same teacher, same class during one trimester, not multiple classes, teachers, or trimesters.

Repeated poor or disruptive behavior whether in the same class, or school wide may result in a parent coming to spend the day with the student in some or all of their classes. As a last resort, classroom exclusion of some sort may be required to remedy the disruptive behavior.

Misconduct/Insubordination Students are required to obey the reasonable requests of all staff members. Willful disobedience, dishonesty, vulgarity and profanity, obscenity, cheating or any other inappropriate behavior, shall be referred immediately to school administration.

NVMS Attendance Policies and Procedures

For further information please visit our NVMS web page.

Reporting an absence: The parent or guardian is responsible for accounting for all student absences and notifying the school as soon as possible. This can be accomplished by:

Calling the attendance office, and sending a written note is required for each day absent.

Notes must include the student's first and last name, the current date, the dates of the day(s) absent, the reason of the absence and it must be signed by the parent or guardian. These can also be sent in, via e-mail.

Absences must be excused within three days upon the students return, or the they will be considered unexcused.

Excused absences: The following reasons are recognized as excused absences with proper contact from a parent/guardian.

Illness or health concerns (Having a fever over 100 degrees, vomiting, and or diarrhea each require students to stay home.) Family emergencies, Religious observances, Medical appointments (parents/guardians are encouraged to schedule appointments during non-school hours if possible). Students are responsible to get all assignments missed, from their teacher.

Unexcused absences: The following reasons are not recognized by NVMS as excuses to be absent. Each unexcused absence will result in lunch detention, two Unexcused absences will result in a Pioneer Honor level drop, and three will result in a parent conference. Oversleeping, missing the bus, truancy, and more than 10 minutes late to class are all examples of unexcused absences.

Attendance notification:

Attendance letters will be mailed home regularly when students meet certain absence thresholds of excused and unexcused absences

When a student is marked absent for a period, an automated phone call is made to notify parents/guardians of the student's absence.

Attendance Recognition: Having excellent attendance is a reason to celebrate! Outstanding attendance will be celebrated and rewarded with Recognition Boards, as well as weekly and monthly raffles.

Students with a 10% or higher absentee rate will not be eligible for that trimesters Honor Level activity. (This includes any absences of nonmedical reasons.) 10% or higher is considered Chronically Absent in the State of Washington by OSPI.

Nooksack Valley Middle SchoolGUIDELINES FOR SUCCESS

Tardies Students who arrive late to class, disrupt the educational environment for students and staff. Reporting to class on time means being in your seat, prepared and ready to begin class. Staff will “sweep” hallways for tardy students each period. Students tardy for a class will not be admitted without a signed pass from the office or a teacher. Tardy students are expected to make up for time missed. After 10 minutes of class time has passed, a tardy becomes an absence.

If a teacher or staff member causes a student to be tardy, the student is expected to ask the teacher to write him/her a note. That tardy will be removed from the school records.

Chronic tardiness is subject to administrative referral.

Three Tardies in a Trimester Letter sent home, Pioneer Honor level drop, Lunch detention for 1 day. Students may also choose a restorative option instead of an HL drop and detention.

Six Tardies in a Trimester Letter sent home, Pioneer Honor level drop, Lunch detention for 2 days.

Nine Tardies in a Trimester Letter sent home, Pioneer Honor level drop, Lunch detention for 3 days.

Continued Accumulation of Tardies General Administrative Consequences with Progressive steps, Parent contact and meeting set up.

Truancy Policy Definition—truancy is defined as any unexcused absence or a student being in an unassigned area during the normal school day. Students are required to check out through the office if they need to leave campus during the school day. Failure to do so is a truancy violation.

Truancy violations will result in Lunch Detentions, and possible referral to our Community Truancy Board.

Becca Bill-Truancy Law: An unexcused absence means not meeting the definition of “excused absence” set by the school and failing to attend school for the majority of hours or periods in a school day, or failing to meet a more restrictive school attendance policy. Upon 7 unexcused absences in month, or 15 in a year, a petition will be filed with the juvenile court system.

General Grading Guidelines

The following grading and assessment practices are intended to more closely match the NVSD K-5 report cards as well as state reporting systems like the Smarter Balance.

At NVMS, report card grades report academic achievement regardless of effort or extra credit. Student progress is reported on a 1-4 numerical scale for daily work, assessments, projects and report card grades. All grades can be viewed on the Skyward web site using the Family Access Code.

Actual time required to complete assignments will vary with each student's study habits, academic skills, and selected course load. If your child is spending an inordinate amount of time doing homework, you should contact your child's teachers. Teachers try not to give homework over the weekend. Contact teacher to stay well informed about the student's learning process.

Student Responsibilities

Write down assignments, and make sure assignments are done according to the given instructions. Be sure all assignments are clear, don't be afraid to ask questions if necessary.
