

Applicant Interest Scoring Rubric

Criteria to be Assessed	3	2	1
1. Ideas	Responds appropriately with unique and interesting perspective.	Responds appropriately with ordinary perspective.	Provides basic responses for all questions.
2. Organization	Responses are written in a clear and concise manner.	Responses are vague but do answer the question.	Responses are vague and do not answer the question asked.
3. Description	Responses consistently and effectively show genuine interest with attached personal connection.	Responses show interest into the field of physical therapy but lack personal connection.	Responses show general interest into the field of physical therapy.
4. Voice	Responses provide unique perspective, leaving the reader to want to know more about who you are.	Responses reveal some of your thoughts and feelings, but needs more personality behind it.	Responses are basic. There is either no hint of a real person behind the writing.
5. Grammar Usage and Sentence Fluency	Responses use proper grammar 100% of the time. Sentences flow well.	Responses have a few grammar problems. Sentences flow well but do not vary much.	Responses have enough grammar errors to distract a reader. Some sentences do not flow well.
6. Spelling and Punctuation	Responses use correct punctuation and spelling 100% of the time.	Responses have a few errors to fix, but generally is correct.	Responses have enough errors to distract a reader.

Total Score :

FOR INFORMATIONAL PURPOSES ONLY