Mindfulness Mondays

Leaders: Alison C,
Georgia, Maddy F
Sponsor: Jessica

Meeting Time: Monday
Clubs/Affinity

Our mission is to make a safe space/club where people can set weekly intentions and goals. We also would like to open a space where people can just come to unwind and relax before the week ahead.

Leaders: Lily E, Claiborne, Ria
Sponsor: Ryan O

Meeting Time: Wednesday lunch

The Devils' Advocate is the student-run school newspaper! We report on multiple categories, including current events, sports, arts, and more, about UHS and the world at-large. We believe that journalism has the power to make each reader's life richer and fosters agency in the UHS community. In pursuit of truth and honoring journalistic integrity, the DA welcomes and encourages all voices to be represented in our paper.

MENA

Leaders: Lily E, Ozan
Sponsor: Dr. Ahmed
Meeting Time: Friday
lunch

MENA stands for Middle Eastern North African and is an affinity space for all people who identify with the term. We mainly have closed meetings available only to those who identify as MENA to discuss topics that relate to our community.

Committee on Sustainability

Leaders: Fiona, Annika P,
Purple, Alicia LG
Sponsor: Rochelle Devault
Meeting Time: Wednesday
lunch

We're an environmental and climate-focused group on campus that is split up into three sub-committees that UHS students can apply to join: Localized Sustainability, Internal Education, Outreach. We focus on individual action as well as education on systemic policy. We also work to make the UHS campus more sustainable. We highly encourage everyone to apply, especially underclassmen!

Interfaith Club

Leaders: Erica C, Ariane

Sponsor: Kate

lunch

Interfaith is a club for students, faculty, and staff to have open conversations about faith and spirituality. With UHS being a secular school, we hope to provide a safe space to discuss our personal belief systems. We would also like to emphasize that we are not an affinity group; anyone is welcome at our meetings, regardless of their religious affiliation or lack thereof.

Spectra

Leaders: Hannah U, Ariane, Nico

Sponsor: Andrew

Meeting Time: Monday Clubs/Affinity

Spectra is the LGBTQ+ affinity group at UHS. We strive to provide a safe space for queer/questioning members of our community to celebrate their identities and express their authentic selves. We host open and closed meetings to discuss current events and queer issues, and we also set aside time to relax and enjoy each others' company. We hope to increase LGBTQ+ awareness in our community and ensure that queer students feel supported and loved.

The FASES club is an affinity space on campus. We provide a safe and supportive space for UHS students on Financial Aid to discuss, and reflect.

The FASES club also provides UHS students on Financial Aid with resources, guidance, and information on how to navigate UHS and the College Admissions process.

Conservative Club

Leaders: Henry P, Jacob N, Arthur S

Sponsor: Kate

Meeting Time: Wednesday lunch

This is a club with potentially closed affinity group meetings. The purpose of our club is to create a space for polite political discussion.

In the modern day full of very contentious arguments over politics, and the often monolithic politics of UHS we feel like a club to be able to discuss and debate politics is very important. Over the course of the year we'll pick various topics to discuss, plan on collaborating with other politically related clubs and do our best to make sure people of all politics or people who are still figuring out their politics can come together and talk about the modern day issues.

Leaders: Mericel, Danielle C

Sponsor: Megan

Meeting Time: Wednesday lunch

From bridges to spaceships, computers to cars, engineers are the force behind many of the objects we interact with.

The Society of Women Engineers (SWE) seeks to increase the representation of women in the engineering field and revamp the dynamics of the engineering workforce. Our UHS SWE Club combines group activities, discussions about current events in engineering, and lessons about engineering to expand on SWE's mission of empowering women engineers.

Most of the activity and learning-based meetings will be open to non-male identifying students, but meetings discussing current events will be open to all!

Leaders: Mericel, Caroline C,
Caroline HS

Sponsor: David

Meeting Time: Monday lunch

Selling short; econometrics; balance sheets...what does this all mean? The UHS Business Club provides opportunities for its members to learn about the inner workings of the business world. Through activities such as case studies, ethical debates, and projects, we will introduce our club members to careers in the business sector, current events in the finance field, and experimentation with basic business transactions. With introductions to management, marketing and investing games, get ready for some fun dives into the business world. We are open to all who would like to join!

The finance club hopes to equip its members with lots of financial knowledge. For example, after joining the club, members will understand how to build financial models and evaluate companies. The club is hosted every week with discussion about what people have learned. It is an open club and everyone is encouraged to join!

Mental Health Association

Understanding Whiteness

Leaders: Michael M, Fiona,
Erin W

Sponsor: Nicole

Understanding Whiteness is a discussion and affinity space for students who identify as white. The space will be used to talk about and further understand whiteness and how that plays a role in our classrooms, clubs, and more.

We will focus on whiteness at UHS, in the Bay Area, and in the world at large, and how we see whiteness appear in current events. This is a white affinity because we want to create a sustained space for the white members of the UHS community to talk about race. However, this is also a club that will work to take action against racism in our UHS community and in our actions through in-depth discussions, philanthropy, literature, and hopefully student attendance at protests. This is meant to be a space that accepts discomfort as part of growth to become a better white ally. We will be working in partnership with the adult Understanding Whiteness group for some meetings, and plan to collaborate with multiple UHS clubs this year to understand how whiteness, white supremacy, and racism intersect with subjects such as gender, sexuality, environmentalism, politics, and education.

Leaders: Lilli, Mia DS, Molly
W, Alicia LG

Sponsor: Lindsay

Meeting Time: TBD

Mental Health Association is a student-led group on campus that's dedicated to mental health advocacy. We have discussions about and focus on a broad range of topics relating to mental health and invite anyone from the UHS community to join our meetings and discussions!
