Season Start/End Dates:

Pre-Season

- I have read all the guidelines and completed all pre-season application materials
Note: If the Independent Provider Application has been completed for your sport in the previous year, you may use the "IP Renewal Application"
- I have signed and understand all Edina Public Schools Board Policies pertaining to Independent Provider Activity Programs
- I have attached my certificate of insurance naming Edina Public Schools as an additional insured.
- I have attached proof of worker's compensation for all individuals working with students participating in this activity.
 Please check this box if all workers and coaches are volunteers. By acknowledging all coaches and workers are volunteers, proof of worker's compensation is not necessary.
- I have included the "Personal Information Form" for all individuals who will be working with the participants.
- I have completed and attached information about competitions, demonstrations or performances.
- I have established a plan to provide participation opportunities for students from all economic backgrounds.
- I have included copies of all criminal background checks, new and old coaches, and cleared all persons who will be working with student participants.

Once Approved

- I have turned in all student participant registration forms in to the Activities Office.

Post-Season

- I have completed the "Post-Season Report" form.
- I have emailed Joe Burger (joseph.burger@edinaschools.org) the award & letter recipient spreadsheet.
- I have collected and turned in all checks for letter recipients ($25/each) to the Activities Office.

By signing this renewal application form, I acknowledge that I have read and understand the process of the independent provider program, reviewed the previous year's application with the activities director and have provided information that is true.
