POPE JOHN XXIII

REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL
ACCREDITED BY ADVANC-ED

Compliance Agreement

Pope John XXIII Regional High School in Sparta, New Jersey is a regional Catholic high school under the auspices of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Paterson. The school is committed to upholding the highest standards of student comportment. Please review the following statements and sign below to indicate your understanding and agreement:

- The student and his/her parent/guardian agree to uphold all the rules and regulations set forth in the school handbook for the duration of the student's enrollment. The handbook is available on the parent portal of the school website and can be requested at any time from the main office.
- The student and his/her parent/guardian agree to be respectful of the teachings, traditions and beliefs of the Catholic faith as espoused by the Diocese of Paterson and Pope John XXIII Regional High School. This includes, but is not limited to, morning prayer, attendance of school liturgies, and the participation in religious education (Theology class) each school year.
- The student and his/her parent/guardian agree to be respectful of the school's commitment to honoring the United States of America and the many sacrifices made to ensure our freedoms and liberties. This includes, but is not limited to, respectfully STANDING for the National Anthem, the recitation of the Pledge of Allegiance, the celebration of Veteran's Day, and prayers for service members that safeguard those freedoms and liberties.
- The Administration retains the right to amend the policies contained on the handbook site. Prompt notification of any change will be made to parents/guardians through a newsletter and updated on the school's website, www.popejohn.org.
