Evening Prayer

Prayer with and for the Parish

Evening Prayer: Monday, October 4th at 7pm in the Church. All are welcome! "When evening approaches and the day is already far spent, evening prayer is celebrated in order that we may give thanks for what has been given us, or what we have done well, during the day." We gather as a parish community on the first Monday of every month to pray Evening Prayer.

Evening Prayer happens on the 1st Monday of the month and is composed of Psalms, Scripture, Songs, and Prayers of Intention. No signup is required. Bring a friend.

House League & CYO Basketball: Deadline to register is Mon. Oct. 4th.

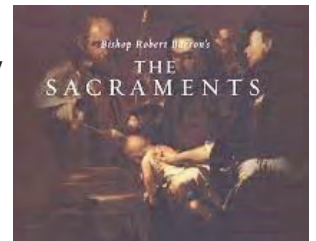

The OLGC CYO and House League basketball programs are gearing up for another fun season. Plans, protocols, and procedures are underway. House League is open to 4th and 5th grade boys and girls to play on teams made up of their OLGC School and CCF peers. The CYO program is open to 6th – 8th grade boys and girls to compete against other parish teams throughout the Northern Virginia area. Practices will be held once or twice a week with games scheduled at a variety of parish gyms, including at OLGC. Visit Basketball webpage for information and to register online www.olgcva.org/fellowship/athletics/basketball. Let's Go Wildcats!!

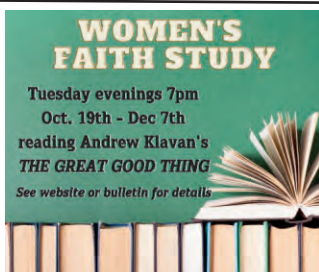

High School Students Sign Up Now to Referee House League Basketball - It is that time of year for our high school students to sign up to be House League Basketball referees. This is a tremendous opportunity for our teenagers to enjoy the excitement of participating in House League and to learn how to make good on-court decisions. The high school refs will also be mentors to our 4th and 5th grade hoopsters, all while earning some cash. If interested, please contact Teresa Paquette at t.paquette33@gmail.com by November 1. Training provided.

Bishop Barron Series -The Sacraments: Wednesdays 10am & 7pm, beginning Oct. 6th

The great sacraments of the Church are true encounters with Christ. Bishop Barron presents lively talks on the sacraments of initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist), the sacraments of healing (Reconciliation and Anointing of the Sick), and finally, the sacraments of vocation or mission (Matrimony and Holy Orders). The group meets for seven sessions to explore each of the sacraments. Each session includes video viewing and small group discussion of the Study Guide questions. Preregistration is required to ensure enough materials are available. To sign-up, www.signupgenius.com/go/30E044EA8A72EA7FC1-thesacraments.

OLGC Open Mic Night is back! Friday, October 8th 7—10pm It is scheduled for the 2nd Friday of every month (except during Lent - moved to 2nd Saturday). An open mic is a live show in which individuals perform on stage for up to 20 minutes. Performances can range with a variety of talents from poetry, acting, comedy, singing, playing instrumentals, or duo/trio bands. All ages are welcome to participate or come and enjoy. Light refreshments are served. See website for more details www.olgcva.org/news-post/~board/news/post/open-mic.

Women's Book Study Interested in reading a good book and sharing your thoughts? Join us at 7pm Tuesday evenings Oct. 19th - Dec. 7th as we read Andrew Klavan's THE GREAT GOOD THING. In this contemporary autobiography, we read the dramatic story of a secular Jew who comes to faith in Jesus Christ. It is a soul-searching story of a man born into an age of disbelief who had to abandon everything he thought he knew in order to find his way to the truth. We will gather in the Brisson Room of the St. Joseph Center or via Zoom. Space is limited. To find out more, contact Anna Somers at 703.577.7414 or annasomers1@gmail.com.

SEASONED CITIZENS – This is the first call for the next luncheon for OLGC seniors, to be held on Thursday, October 21 in DeSales Hall, where the doors will open at Noon. Oktoberfest will be celebrated appropriately with traditional German food! Starting October 7th, you can make your reservations by going to the OLGC website, www.olgcva.org where you'll see the link for SignUpGenius. Questions? E-mail Heidi.snyder@verizon.net or call 703-919-7382. Be assured that every effort will be made to ensure your safety and that of the volunteers, following parish guidelines. Last month's event was extremely enjoyable and well attended. We hope you'll join us in the spirit of "gemutlichkeit" on October 21! Stay tuned.

MEDICARE AND HOSPICE CARE – There are a lot of misconceptions about hospice care, especially when it involves Medicare. This is the first part of a short series covering this subject which will help you understand how everything works. The information was obtained from the official Medicare website. So, let's begin at the beginning. To qualify for hospice care, a hospice doctor and your doctor must certify that you're terminally ill, meaning you have a life expectancy of 6 months or less. When you agree to hospice care, you agree to comfort care (palliative care) instead of care to cure your illness. You also must sign a statement choosing hospice care instead of other benefits Medicare covers to treat your terminal illness and related conditions. Coverage includes all items and services needed for pain relief and symptom management, medical, nursing, and social services, drugs for pain management, durable medical equipment for pain relief and symptom management, aide and homemaker services, and other covered services you need to manage your pain and other symptoms, as well as spiritual and grief counseling for you and your family. Medicare-certified hospice care is usually given in your home or another facility where you live, such as a nursing home or assisted living.

Important things to remember are that with Original Medicare, you pay nothing for hospice care. You pay a copayment of up to $5 for each prescription for outpatient drugs for pain and symptom management. In the rare case, the hospital benefit doesn't cover your drug, your hospice provider should contact your plan to see if Part D covers it. As well, you may pay 5% of the Medicare-

Approved Amount for inpatient respite care.
(Next week: more about what's included.)

MICAH THE PROPHET – When I moved to my retirement community three and a half years ago, one of the first things I noticed was a plaque on one of the columns holding up the portico of the Cardinal Clubhouse. It was a biblical quotation: "This is what the Lord asks of you: only this, to act justly, to love tenderly and to walk humbly with your God. Micah 6-9" I see it every time I enter that building, as does everyone else who comes through those doors.

It was brought to my attention again when Father Dolan shared with us that it was his favorite quotation from the bible, and I told him the story of the plaque. That was only a couple of months ago, and I was reminded of it yet again last week when I read an article by the Abbot of the Benedictine monks, Rt. Rev. Gary a. Hoover, OSB, at St. Andrew's Abbey in my hometown of Cleveland. A plaque with the same inscription was on the door of one of the classrooms at Benedictine High School, where the monks teach, and he also has the same quote on his office desk in the abbey. It struck me as unique to keep bumping into Micah like this, and that led me to write this short reflection.

I think, as we age, we become more aware of time, and recall what we've done in our lives, and wonder what we hope to do in the time we've been given. We wonder why we're still here, wonder what God's plan is for us. Sometimes we overthink it. Fr. Gary described Micah's insight "as the true compass, the true direction in responding to God's call. Micah gives us the way to embrace that call to be the best we are created to be. It boils down to just 3 guides: 1) acting justly towards others, no matter how difficult that may be, 2) loving others even though they may seem unlovable and impossible to reach, and 3) walking humbly, daily, with God. His quote can become a daily inspirational thought that can help us stay more positive and keep negativity away." Sometimes we're so busy focusing on what's wrong in our lives, we forget what's wonderful about it – what's amazing, really.

ELDER WISDOM – I'm getting tired of being part of a major historical event!

OLGC currently does not have any Masses available for intentions at OLGC for the rest of 2021. The Mass Intention book for 2022 will open in November. Consider a Mass intention or enrollment at the DeSales Ctr in Childs, MD or a Devotional Candle. To "light a candle for someone" indicates one's intention to say a prayer for another person, and the candle symbolizes that prayer. For a donation of $25, you have the opportunity to have the candle burn for a week. Contact Maria Romero, welcome@olgcva.org, 703.896.7419 or visit www.olgcva.org/liturgy-worship/devotions.
