

Middle School Humanities Teacher

Christina Seix Academy is seeking an experienced and innovative Humanities Teacher to join us as a member of the founding Middle School Team. The Humanities Teacher would work closely with the Middle School Director and the instructional team. Responsibilities would include teaching core content related to literacy, writing, and social studies. In addition, they would play an instrumental role in developing and implementing an engaging and rigorous Humanities Program for the Middle School.

Qualifications:

- MA in Education Preferred
- 3-5 Successful years teaching Literacy and or Social Studies preferred and/or highly qualified in Literacy
- Experience with coaching and or leading co-curricular programming preferred

Essential Characteristics:

- A creative, engaging, and innovative educator that has a strong passion for the content and a deep interest in supporting learners;
- Interested in working with and helping students from urban environments succeed in a rigorous academic setting;
- Flexible and Forward thinking;
- Interested in designing and leading in co-curricular and extended day programming;
- Having an entrepreneurial spirit and excited about designing curriculum and creating new programming;
- A constant learner who reflects on his/her own work, regularly seeking feedback and knowledge to improve their teaching practice;
- Set and hold students to extremely high academic and behavioral standards.
- Build rapport with students and families outside of classroom;
- Willingness to work closely with the MS Director, Staff and Faculty to create programming and experiences to enhance student learning and engage the larger CSA community;

Primary Academic Responsibilities:

- Learn and implement the curriculum for the assigned grade level;
- Work closely with MS Director to implement curriculum at a high level;
- Research and create lessons to complement/ supplement the curriculum and student needs;
- Select appropriate books, media and instructional resources that will enhance student learning experiences;
- Individualize instruction to help each student achieve curricular objective;
- Track and assess student academic progress and attendance;
- Provide students with regular feedback on their growth and progress throughout the year;

- Generate formal and informal reports regarding student performance and progress;
- Work collaboratively with the MS Director, Residential Life team and other colleagues to create and implement meaningful experiences and programming in the Residential Life buildings.
- Planning, organizing and participating in whole school events;
- Communicate with parents and caregivers on individual students' progress throughout the year.

Physical and Emotional Demands: Work is active; it may require long periods of standing and walking, as well as occasional sitting, reaching at or above shoulder height, twisting, pushing/pulling and stooping/bending/lifting to perform activities with students and staff; must be able to work in an open-concept environment where noise and other activities may at times interfere with concentration. Must be able to alter plans/routines when unexpected, stressful situations and multiple interruptions occur without projecting stress/frustration that would adversely affect the work environment.

CSA, as a condition of employment, requires a comprehensive background check, including a drug-screening, prior to hiring. CSA is a drug-free environment, and random drug-screenings may be required of all employees after hiring.

Equal Opportunity Employer

Christina Seix Academy is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, creed, sexual orientation, national or ethnic origin, veteran or handicapped status in its hiring policies.

Interested individuals please send resumes, cover letters, sample lesson plan, and three professional references to either:

Nicole Morillo at nmorillo@christinaseixacademy.org

Calvin King at cking@christinaseixacademy.org

Zaineb Hussain at zhussain@christinaseixacademy.org.