

Kairos, adapted from Greek to mean "God's Time," is a Christian retreat program geared toward deepening one's faith, identity, relationships, and connection to God's role in our lives.

3 Days of Prayer Community Faith & Fun

All Seniors are invited to join us at Malvern Retreat House October 12th-15th for an awesome overnight life changing faith experience. The retreat will begin after school (2:41 p.m.) on Tuesday and end Approximately 3:00 p.m. on Friday. bus transportation will be provided to and from the retreat sight. Signup sheets are available in the Campus Ministry Office on the second floor (across from room 21) stop in to see Mr. Shields for more details.

Space is limited on each retreat to approximately 30 students. The Cost of the Retreat which includes Transportation, housing, and nine meals is $200. Payment will be added to your tuition account. Scholarships are available. finances are not an obstacle to a student's participation in this life-giving retreat. For scholarship inquires email Mr. Shields. Spots are filled on a first-come, first-serve basis. To Sign up please complete the form on the reverse side and drop it at the Campus Ministry Office or Main Office. Sign up ASAP

What to Bring:

Pack very informally but please keep the baggage down to a minimum. Each participant should put his name on all his bags. Frisbees, and footballs playing cards etc. are allowed for the free periods. On Tuesday Please bring all baggage to the outside room of the chapel before Homeroom. Students Should wear uniforms Tuesday, but bring a casual change of clothes for the end of the day! After last period students will grab their bags from the chapel room and meet down in the Cafeteria. Please pack a sweater or jacket!

- ♣ The retreat house does supply towels, bed linens, blankets, and pillows. Bringing an extra towel might be a good idea, though.
- Participants should bring a four-day supply of snacks and at least two six packs of soda or water. Bring a Rosery Bible and Notebook =)
- ♣ Participants should not bring any school work. Since, however, the participants will be missing three days of school, they should make a special effort to be up to date on school work before they leave.

Other Info:

Retreatants cannot use the telephone during the retreat. In an event of an emergency, parents should contact Mr. Shields 856-723-4405

Roman Catholic High School's policy on drugs, beer, hard liquor, etc. will be in full force. Any violations in this area will be dealt with most severely.
