

33rd Annual

WALK AGAINST DRUGS

Presenting one of this year's keynote speakers

Student and Actress

Kayden Tokarski

Kayden Tokarski is a 12-year-old local actress and 7th grade student in the Capistrano Unified School District who has starred in several films including "My Melancholy Baby" on Amazon Prime Video and the soon-to-be released

"Unloaded" as well as appeared on shows like "The Mandalorian." She is a keynote speaker at this year's Walk Against Drugs by appearing in one of the video presentations. She says, "Even at my age, I've already seen kids walking down the wrong path with drugs, vaping, and alcohol. "It's been a wake-up call to see this because I think its easy to forget that just because we live in beautiful South Orange County, get good grades and have big dreams, we are not immune to the influence of drugs, alcohol, and tobacco. But, what we do have is power. The power to say NO."
