

Parents, Want to learn home strategies that support your child with dyslexia?

Nancy Disterlic, M.A.T., LDT, CALT

Please join us for an informative evening of our Region 10 Dyslexia Parent County Connection! Not only can you participate from the comfort of your own home, but you get to choose the date that is most convenient for you.

NANCY DISTERLIC, our Region10 Dyslexia Consultant, will share her unique perspective on the challenges of dyslexia that include her personal and professional experiences. She will also help you explore effective functional strategies and metacognition practices that will help you as a parent. In addition, she will cover practical approaches, so you can monitor academic progress while your child strengthens their independence and confidence.
