NEW HIGH SCHOOL IN PRAIRIEVILLE

A new high school in Prairieville will help Ascension Public Schools maintain optimal enrollment size for all high schools. Over the past 10 years (2009-2019), the combined enrollments at Dutchtown High, East Ascension High and St. Amant High have grown by more than 1,500 students – clearly indicating a need for a new high school campus.

EAST ASCENSION HIGH SCHOOL MAKEOVER

A full makeover at East Ascension High School will include modern facilities, classrooms with greater access to technology, and outdoor spaces for students to collaborate and learn. The new façade will incorporate a modern interpretation of Roman architecture to embody the school's Spartan spirit.

ARTIFICIAL SURFACING AT ALL HIGH SCHOOL STADIUMS

New surfacing with artificial grass at the existing four high school stadiums plus the proposed new high school stadium, will allow for safe play in almost all weather conditions. Over time, the fields will have lower maintenance costs and be more accessible to various school and community programs, including middle school football, soccer, marching bands, and ROTC.
