Because life presents many challenges

Since using EAP, I'm able to concentrate better and focus on my patients.

I used to hate going to work. It's better now. My EAP counselor offered great suggestions.

The EAP helped me to help my 13 year old daughter. She is so much happier now.

My divorce was difficult. Talking to an EAP counselor was very helpful to me and my kids.

Losing my job was difficult. My EAP counselor helped me cope and create a plan to get back to work.

Caring for my mom created a lot of stress. The EAP helped decrease my stress and find valuable resources.

Offering free, confidential, brief counseling to employees and their family members.
