What even is ASB? Open to all grades, the Associated Student Body is a student government club that spreads school spirit and promotes the individual voices that form our student body.

Different ASB committees, including Agape, Class Games, and Spirit Week, collaborate throughout the year to make the experience of ICS students better. Join ASB to advance your leadership skills and make long-lasting friendships! Be sure to fill out the interest form on the last slide to receive the link to the ASB informational meeting on Monday, October 4. We hope you'll join ASB!

Authors Society

Authors Society

Get a behind-the-scenes view of how our literary magazine, Pyra, is published while learning about various forms of art and writing along the way!

6-12th graders welcome
Mondays 2:30-3:15 in Room 156

Authors Society

Scan this code or visit
<https://bit.ly/3nKL5fL> to join.

Do you wonder what goes behind publishing a magazine? Interested in art and writing? At Authors Society, students participate in the publishing process for ICS's annual literary magazine, Pyra. Throughout the year, our focus is reviewing student art and writing submissions, and once submissions close, we format the magazine and publish it. Authors Society is open to all grades. We meet on Mondays 2:30-3:15 in Room 156. If you are looking for a low-key club where you can enjoy art and writing, please join us October 4th! Contact s-cerignac@lwsd.org with any questions.

Code Club

A promotional graphic for Code Club. The left side has a purple background with colorful game controller icons and the text 'JOIN CODE CLUB' in white and yellow. Below this, a light blue box contains the text: 'THE PLACE FOR ALL PEOPLE TO LEARN CODING', 'Thursdays 2:30 to 3:30 PM', 'Ms. Kim's Room (169)', 'Previous coding experience doesn't matter', and 'All grades welcome!'. The right side features a QR code with a blue copyright symbol in the center.

Hey everyone, whether you have zero or a lot of experience with coding, Code Club is the place for you! At Code Club, we welcome all grades to come and join! @ics_code_club

Mock Trial

Mock trial is a high school club that centers around building a strong team and competing with other schools to simulate a real trial. Members can play either witnesses or attorneys who will work together to make a convincing case for the regional competition in second semester. There will be two meetings a week, every Tuesday and Thursday. Our club fosters a tight knit community of freshman through seniors and it's a great opportunity to make lasting friendships! #LoveClub

MUN

1 Become a leader.

Model United Nations, a simulation of the real United Nations (UN), empowers students to solve the world's most critical issues. Learn valuable research, public speaking and collaboration skills to lead on solutions.

2 Learn about global issues.

Debate topics cover areas like:

- World Health
- International Politics
- Historical conflicts
- Regional Issues
- Technology in the World

and so much more...

3 Win Awards!

Conferences offer exceptional delegates the chance to win awards. Showcase them at club meetings, on our social media and in the larger MUN community!

4 Grow closer in the comMUNity.

Apply for advanced positions to plan conferences, conduct outreach, design conference materials and gain community service hours and skills that help you in the real world and look great on college applications!

5 Lead the future.

You are the future. The actions you take today will shape the world of tomorrow. MUN is an outlet for you to debate and create that world.

All Phoenixes in grades 8-12: join ICS MUN to work with other students and solve global issues! From hotel conferences to community service hours to writing and public speaking skills, there's no limit for what MUN has to offer you! We meet MUNDays (Mondays) from 2:30-3:30 PM in Ms. Robertson's room 146. Check out our newly updated club board in the hallway, @phoenix.mun on Instagram and fill out the interest form using the LinkTree in our IG bio! See you on October 4th for our interest meeting!
