FROM THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES CHAIR

MIA BASS, Campbell '25 and Elizabeth '29

Relecting on the 2020–2021 school year, I breathe a sigh of relief and count my blessings. Planning an academic year organized around on-campus, in-person teaching and learning, with a significant distance-learning component, while many school systems remained fully remote presented a whole host of challenges. Diligent, multifaceted health and safety protocols and deeply committed faculty and staff enabled us to open our doors in September and gradually invite additional grade levels to join us on campus, but we remained humble in the face of a pandemic that still ravages parts of our country and regions of the world. St. Patrick's was able to deliver a far more "normal" school year than we could have believed was possible, and we were able to do so because of students who complied with all manner of new requirements, families who upheld community-wide expectations with regard to health and safety, and faculty and staff who persisted and responded creatively to every situation. I am grateful to each and every member of our community who made substantive teaching and learning, so much of it in-person, possible during a year of extraordinary challenges. Thank you.

Physical safety at the Day School is, of course, a starting point for any conversation, but we also have to attend to the social and emotional well-being of our students to ensure that they have a real sense of belonging and can immerse themselves in a learning environment in which they can truly thrive. Both at St. Patrick's and across our nation, themes of racial justice, equity, diversity, and inclusion have moved to the fore. In our classrooms, that has meant making space for conversations about who we are, how we are similar to and different from those around us, and how we can value what each of those individuals brings to this setting and to the wider world. At the Board of Trustees level, recognizing both the significance and the ongoing nature of the work of equity, diversity, and inclusion, we acted to make an existing Ad Hoc Committee a Permanent Board Committee, and the Head of School Search Committee engaged a consultant to create an equitable search process that would acknowledge the perils of implicit bias. This consultant, Dr. Derrick Gay, will continue to work with Trustees to enhance our understanding, our deliberations, and our decision-making as we live out our determination to recognize the infinite value of every individual as a child of God.

St. Patrick's is renowned for our strong sense of community, and our community's history of generous support is evident, once again, in the pages of this Annual Report. The Annual Fund and Fund-A-Scholar IDEALS Program and Auction contribute more than 7% of annual operating revenue, enabling the Day School to use tax-advantaged dollars to fuel our mission and to maintain, and continue to enhance, our superb program. Philanthropy at St. Patrick's is also critical to making this program available to students and families from a range of socioeconomic circumstances. We are deeply grateful for the generous gifts that nurture the potential in all of our students to make positive contributions to society.

Sara and Peter O'Keefe led our Annual Fund as Co-Chairs with the inspiring theme, Together We Shine. Always our top philanthropic priority, the Annual Fund was of particular importance this year as the Day School faced increased operating costs due to facilities modifications, new health and safety protocols, and additional staffing to meet the demands of in-person learning in the midst of a pandemic. The O'Keefes and their Leadership Council encouraged nearly 600 community members to make almost $1,060,000 in gifts to the Day School, representing the second-largest income stream after tuition dollars. Their motivational leadership was enhanced by the Board of Trustees and faculty and staff, 100% of whom made an Annual Fund gift. Unanimous support from these groups sets the standard of cohesive community support. Meanwhile, almost 90% of our current parents stepped up, dug deep, and gave generously to support our students and our faculty and staff as they co-created vibrant settings for teaching and learning under unprecedented circumstances.

Embracing the knowledge that this year's Auction would be different from those in the past, Co-Chairs Margret Nedelkoff and Vee Solomon reimagined the annual event to support socioeconomic diversity as the Fund-A-Scholar IDEALS Variety Show and Auction: Behind the Mask. IDEALS is a celebration of St. Patrick's mission and our values of Inclusion, Diversity, Excellence, Agency, Learning, and Scholarship. The virtual event, emceed by Brad Herman and Elaine del Cerro, was a marvelous mix of humor, emotion, and amazing generosity. Although we couldn't gather in person, the video submissions from students, faculty and staff, and families highlighted the diverse talents and sense of fun that characterize this community. Behind the Mask—and, virtually—St. Patrick's demonstrated deep commitment to our core values and raised almost $530,000 to help students from a range of socioeconomic circumstances become vital parts of the Day School. A record-setting Fund-A-Scholar paddle-raise of $355,475 helped fuel this success.

We are all so very grateful to be part of this special community, and our commitment, support, and generosity continue to make St. Patrick's an extraordinary place for the young people who call it their school-home. Thank you to each and every one of you for making all of this important work possible. I look forward to the 2021–2022 school year being yet another opportunity for our community to come together in support of the Day School and the students and faculty and staff who animate it each and every day!

“The extraordinary generosity of our community during a global pandemic enabled the Annual Fund to raise over 1 million dollars in support of the school, the faculty and staff, and the students at St. Patrick’s! The tireless leadership of the administration and the faculty, compounded by the vast resources needed to operate the school, and the desire to serve our children with the best education possible during the challenging time, unified us with a singular purpose. It is with an abundance of gratitude that we want to thank our generous community and the Annual Fund team. For us, giving brings so much joy - the friendship it creates, the purpose it gives us, and the love that grows. That is why St Patrick’s will always hold a special place in our, and Ryan’s, hearts.”

“The Fund-A-Scholar IDEALS Variety Show and Auction: Behind the Mask was everything we imagined it could be: A celebration of St. Patrick’s mission and our values of Inclusion, Diversity, Excellence, Agency, Learning, and Scholarship; an opportunity for all community members to showcase their talents or just make us laugh; lively and profitable Silent and Live Auctions; and an exceptional Fund-A-Scholar virtual paddle-raise. Our community proved that Wolfhounds are really funny, incredibly dedicated to our values, and epically generous. We did it together, Wolfhounds, and we thank you all!”
