Reese Named as New Assistant Principal at Davie County High School

The Davie County School Board, superintendent and district leadership team are pleased to announce that Tracy Reese will join the team as a new assistant principal for Davie County High School.

Mrs. Reese joins the Davie County Schools family with 15 years of experience in education, most recently as a Math Teacher and Department Chair at Hickory Career and Arts Magnet High School. In this role she also served as a Professional Learning Community facilitator, beginning teacher mentor, and Chair of the School Leadership Team. Mrs. Reese has earned the honor of Teacher of the Year in Hickory Public Schools and was nominated for Teacher of the Year while serving in Iredell-Statesville Schools.

Mrs. Reese holds a Bachelor of Arts in Mathematics from UNC Charlotte, and earned her Masters in School Administration from Appalachian State University in 2020. She and her husband are the proud parents of five children and four grandchildren. She enjoys cooking, reading, gardening, and camping.
