Birthday Treats/Classroom Snacks

Students may bring an individual healthy snack to eat during the school day. Classroom teachers will schedule snack-time and it will vary according to each grade level's schedule. Please send healthy, nut-free items that do not include soda, candy, or sweets (no donuts, cupcakes, etc). Click here for suggestions
Peanut butter, nut-granola bars, and other nut items can be eaten during lunchtime (in the lunchroom) but NOT in the classroom during snack time. (We will help you remember these details)

Sending a Birthday Day treat for your child's classroom is allowed this year but not required. It is a personal choice for each family. Since the treat is intended to be shared with other children, there are strict guidelines to follow:

1. Store-bought (no homemade items)
2. Purchased wrapped and individually sealed (no bakery box full of cupcakes, please)
3. Nut-free Click here for suggestions but still check the label
4. A clear, readable ingredient label
5. Check with your child's teacher for any other restrictions that may pertain to your child's classroom.
6. Keep in mind the children's age and ability to eat and open items independently.
