Sixth Grade

- Trenton Assini! (6th grade) Trenton is the student every teacher needs in their room! He has been a valuable asset to our classroom since day one of school. He is always eager to help, stays a minute after dismissal to make sure there is no trash on the ground, and that all chairs are properly stacked. Trenton also looks for pencils students discard onto the ground and brings them to class to make sure we never go without pencils for those who don't bring one of their own. He has even chosen to give pencils. Trenton is an incredibly kind student who tries to help his fellow students in any way he can. I sure appreciate his kind nature! ~P. Tuck
- Julian Vazquez! (6th grade) Julian couldn't wait to be out helper of the week in 5th period! He was an excellent helper and sought out ways he could be of assistance to others in the class. I appreciate his attitude and he has truly had marked improvements since the first week of school. Thank you, Julian, for letting us see the real you! ~P. Tuck
- Michael Priest! (6th grade) Michael volunteered to be the first 5th period student helper of the week. He is always looking for a way to help others. Michael thrives with rules and order and he is a great example to others in following expectations. ~P. Tuck
- Elizabeth Soto! (6th grade) Elizabeth was our 4th period's first student helper of the week. She was so willing to help and volunteered right away when I asked who wanted to be selected. Her help made our first week go so much smoother. ~P. Tuck
- Azariah Russaw! (6th grade) Azariah was 2nd period's first student helper of the week. She was so willing to help and to organize. Even though she is no longer the week's helper, she is always one of the first to volunteer for any help needed as well as to volunteer to read or participate. I sure appreciate her in class! ~P. Tuck
- Erick Vaca! (6th grade) Erick was one of the first students I met this school year. He was so eager to be helpful and was happy to be back in school. Erick was my 1st student helper for the school year, and he set the bar pretty high. He was a great example and we miss him in our class (his schedule was changed). ~P. Tuck
