

20 TPSD Teachers Receive 2021 Distinction Recognition

TUPELO, Miss. — Monday and Tuesday were days of celebration for educators in the Tupelo Public School District, as 18 teachers and two assistant teachers received Teacher of Distinction accolades.

These awards have been given yearly to Tupelo Public School District teachers since 1988 and are sponsored by the CREATE Foundation and the Association for Excellence in Education.

Teachers received $1,000 in grant money, while assistant teachers got $500.

Following are the 221 winners:

Carver: Sandy Corkern

ECEC: Savannah Tucker

Lawhon: Joyce Juarez

Lawndale: Anna Beth Cates, Richard Satterwhite (A)

Milam: Tammy Robertson, Chasicity Tate, Sharon Warren, Samuel Goins, Natasha Oyewumi (A)

Pierce Street: Zac Thomas, Erin Hall

Rankin: Lindsey Hester, Christy Morgan

Thomas Street: Katie Wood

Tupelo Career & Technical Center: Kim Hudson

Tupelo High School: Katrina Berry-Ivy, Precious Hill, Christina Hudgins-Davis

Tupelo Middle School: Marley Maharrey

A — Assistant Teacher