Understanding Accommodations and Modifications: For many students with disabilities, the key to success in the classroom lies in having appropriate accommodations and modifications made to the instruction and other classroom activities. So how are the two different? Learn more about the differences, with examples, and how they can “level the playing field” in the classroom.

Social and Emotionally Healthy Kids: Kids with a strong foundation in social-emotional health are better able to identify and manage emotions, express empathy, form healthy relationships, make responsible decisions, and cope with stress—giving them a greater chance to live up to their full potential in school, at home and in life. Join us to discuss ways you can help build this foundation at home!

Verbal De-Escalation Tips for Parents: FDLRS invites you to join us on Zoom. This training will provide parents with targeted verbal intervention strategies to use with their children who are at risk of escalating into aggression.

Please join us for one or all of the online sessions. If you have difficulty connecting or having technical issues, please contact our office at 772-429-4585. Mary.Trubisky@stlucieschools.org Erin.Perman@stlucieschools.org
