Parish Updates & Events

Today is World Mission Sunday. We celebrate this day by remembering our baptismal call – to bring the Gospel to all! The collection today for the Society for the propagation of the faith supports the work and witness of the Mission Church, as it provides for priests, religious and lay leaders who offer the Lord's mercy and concrete help to the most vulnerable communities in the Pope's missions. Use this link to give online <https://membership.faithdirect.net/givenow/VA875/26639>. Thank you for your generosity.

Every October, we celebrate Respect Life Month. We consider more deeply why every human life is valuable and reflect on how to build a culture that protects life from conception to natural death. Let us work and pray together that every human life may be welcomed in love and protected in law. Are you being called to help the parish Respect Life Ministry? Contact Betsy Argauer at betstim@gmail.com.

November: The Church calls us to Remember As the days get shorter and there is a chill in the air, the church turns its attention to those who have died, our loved ones who have completed their earthly journey and now find their reward in heaven. We reflect in this month of remembrance the holy dead of our families. We continue to remember in prayer and in our hearts those persons with whom we have shared life and who have so richly shared life with us.

- All Saints Day Masses in the Church 8:30am, 12:10pm and 7pm (not a holy day of obligation this year).
- Table of Remembrance - Beginning on Mon. Nov. 1st you can bring a photograph of a loved one who has died, to the Administration Office or place it on the Table of Remembrance located in the Narthex of the Church. The Tables will remain up through the month of November.
- Book of the Dead will be placed under the Paschal Candle in the Sanctuary. You are encouraged to contact Gerard Hall at 703-896-7411 or liturgy@olgcvva.org with the name(s) of your loved ones who have died to be included in the Book. The names will be inscribed, along with a special intercession in the Prayers of the Faithful for November.

Mass of Remembrance Thursday, November 11, 2021 7:00pm: You are invited to join the Community of Our Lady of Good Counsel and the Oblates of Saint Francis de Sales as we support one another in prayer and ask God to welcome our deceased loved ones into the Kingdom of Heaven. On Thurs. Nov. 11th at 7pm, we will gather at Mass in the Church to celebrate the lives of those members of our families, friends, and the faith community who died this past year, and to seek God's presence in our time of grief. A light reception will follow the Mass in DeSales Hall.

Mass intentions for 2022 will be accepted starting Monday, November 15th. Details will be forthcoming.

Parish Updates & Events

OLGC Music Ministry: The Church teaches us that music at Mass is normative. One of the hardest things about the pandemic when we first came back was that there was little, or no music allowed to be sung. Something was missing. But when the restrictions began to lessen, and music was once again allowed, we decided to work to unify our sung prayer – same opening and closing hymns/songs, and the same sung Mass setting at all the English Masses. This has provided for our music to be a singular prayer while expressed in different ways. Many have commented that they prefer this type of structure to the Mass.

The Music Ministries at OLGC strive to pray and to praise God through music while assisting our worshipping assembly to have "conscious, active and full participation" as called for by the church. We have many talented people, young and old, amateur, and professional serving the OLGC community. But there is a need for more (you) to join and get involved in the music ministry.

Do you have that gift of music, the talent to sing or play an instrument? Have you thought about joining in the song? As we move forward, we invite you to share your gift with the community by joining one of our music ministries. We need singers who can lead or support, and instrumentalists who can play the guitar, flute, trumpet, violin, or other instruments. If God has blessed you with the gift of music, if you are involved in music in school – Band, Chorus or Orchestra – if you played in the band or sang in a choir or chorus in a previous life – THINK! PRAY! and JOIN! with your fellow parishioners in one of the music ministries.

For more information, please contact Gerard Hall, liturgy@olgcva.org or 703-896-7411.

A BOUNTIFUL HARVEST – Save the date! Vienna Parks and Recreation and the Shepherd's Center of Northern Virginia invite you to this annual Fall event at the Vienna Community Center on November 18 from 12-2 pm. Food and friendship add to the joys of the Thanksgiving Holiday. You'll enjoy turkey and all the fixings prepared by the Davis Career Center, followed by entertainment from award-winning actress and Smithsonian scholar Mary Ann Jung. Come celebrate everything you're thankful for. Registration information: $15 per person. Prepayment is due by November 5. To register, call the Shepherd's center, 703-281-0538.

FREE CONCERT - The New Dominion Chorale and Orchestra is pleased to present this concert as a gift for the community. It will be held today, Sunday, October 24, at 4:00 pm at St. Luke's Catholic Church, 7001 Georgetown Pike in McLean. Beveridge's "Yizkor Requiem: A Quest for Spiritual Roots" and Mendelsohn's "Psalms" will be featured. Masks and proof of vaccination are required. This promises to be an amazing performance! Try not to miss it!

TAX NEWS – According to Kiplinger's Retirement Report, longer forms for Schedules 1, 2, and 3 are coming. Form 1040 will look very much like that for the 2020 tax year. To date, there are only minor changes to the two-page form. But the aforementioned schedules are much longer because they'll list specifics for other types of income, adjustments, credits, etc.

In addition, a free service is available to retrieve old tax data. Don't worry if you need information on a return that you've tossed or lost. Taxpayers can use the IRS's free Get Transcript online tool to view and immediately print a tax transcript, which is a summary of key data on a tax return. Alternatively, mail Form 4506-T or call 800-908- 9946 to order a transcript copy. Those seeking copies of actual tax returns must request them by mail, using form 4506. There's a $43 fee per return, and it can take the IRS up to 75 days to process the request. However, for those living in a federally declared disaster area can get the fee waived, and the agency will expedite the processing.

NEW TRIP – Vienna Parks & Recreation is planning a trip to the National Museum of the United States Army in Fort Belvoir, VA, on November 10. It celebrates over 245 years of Army history and honors our nation's soldiers – past, present, and future – the regular Army, the Army Reserve, and the Army National Guard. This museum is an enduring effort to tell the Army story and honor the accomplishments, sacrifices, and commitment of American soldiers. Lunch will be on your own in the Museum Café. The fee is $35 for town residents; $43.75 for everyone else. Register via your WebTrac account at viennava.gov or stop by the Vienna Community Center.

MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING – This comedic play by William Shakespeare about misunderstandings, love, and deception will be performed by the Vienna Theatre Company on October 29, 30, and November 5 and 6 at 8:00pm at the Vienna Community Center. There will also be Sunday matinee performances at 2:00 pm on Sunday, October 31 and November 7. The ticket price is $15.00. This is a terrific bargain, there's plenty of free parking, and you don't have to drive very far to get there!

WHITE HOUSE GREETINGS – It appears that the program that provides free special occasion White House greetings continues, according to information gleaned from the Internet dated mid-July of this year. Free greetings will be sent to US Citizens celebrating the following milestones: Birthday: those celebrating their 80th birthday and above, or veterans celebrating a birthday 70 and above are eligible to receive a greeting. As well, those couples celebrating their 50th, 60th, 70th, and up wedding anniversary can get one. Submit these 6-8 weeks before the event. Send requests after these events: Birth or adoption, wedding or civil union, Eagle Scout Award, Girl Scout Gold Award, Bar/ Bat Mitzvah, or equivalent occasion.

There are two ways to request a greeting. One is to mail your request to The White House, Attn: Greetings Office, 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20500. OR contact your Senator or House Representative. Include the following information with your request: Name and address of the honoree (or couple if it's for an anniversary or wedding); The way to address the greeting (such as Mr., Mrs., or first name); type and date of the event or special occasion; age if a birthday or number of years married if an anniversary; and your name and phone number. Be clear about your request, double-check all the information before you send it. You can expect the greetings to be received in 8-12 weeks, although it may take longer to receive them during popular request times.

ELDER WISDOM – I'm at a place in my life where errands are starting to count as going out.
