ADMINISTRATIVE BUSINESS

A. Treasurer's Report:

The balance in Lakeside acct. Is $7,291.59 thru Oct 21, 2021. Foundation still has $1,400 of donation funds. Some discussion ensued in response to a suggestion that Lakeside funds be transferred to Foundation, but members agreed that because of the delineation between donations and merchandise revenue, this is not a good idea.

Motion that funds not be co-mingled between the two accounts:Debbie Linhart

Second: Kathy Wilson. Motion passes

OLD BUSINESS

- A. The idea of a pamphlet has been tabled for now since the business cards are practical and refer people to the website for information. It was stressed that website should stay current and informative.
- B. New solicitation letter will be written once our donation for this year has been determined.
- C. Homecoming 2021 and Fall Farmers Market_both deemed a success. Traffic was good and sales of tees and throws were fairly strong.
- D. Scholarship: Debbie has not gotten a response from Drew despite her efforts. It was determined that the officers should meet with Dr. Bagdasarian. Lisa will try and coordinate that with his assistant, Kelly Corry. Lisa will request to meet on Nov. 4 surrounding set up of ydap.
- E. Archives: Debbie shared that the archival room is very full of tables and chairs from the library due to covid protocol. Debbie shared some old photos that were duplicates. 1965 Band photo, and 1940 graduating class roster.
- F. Members suggested and discussed potential names for the Alumni Newsletter Duke Spotlight .

NEW BUSINESS

A.Tee shirts: Lisa picked up 15 new tee shirts that were ordered by Linda.

B. YDAP: Lisa reported that she and Sharon O'Brien met with Alumni Relations to discuss ydap event. The event will be open to the public but streamlined. Recipients will only speak 3-5 mins and no photo screen will be used. Sharon offered to coordinate volunteers for set up (between 2:00-4:00pm) and volunteered to do floral centerpieces. There will be just 10 tables this year, and Yorker Room will not be decorated. Recipients will visit classrooms the next day, and a small luncheon will be held at La Brigade. Lisa, Sharon and Jan Dolan went to find and gather supplies. It did appear that some `120" round tablecloths were missing. Jan will check to see if York has any of the long black tablecloths or long white tablecloths, and will then have to figure out what to use.

C. Football Game: The last home football game of the season will be Friday, Oct. 22 and former alumni York football players will be honored and recognized. We will have tables set up under the big tent at the north end of the field and sell merchandise.
