Distance Learning Plan (updated 8/21/20)
(Previously titled Recovery Plan)

The Davila Day School Distance Learning Plan outlined below was based on the Recovery Plan that was developed in May 2020 with input provided by Davila classified and certificated staff. The proposed Distance Learning Plan now includes guidance from the California Department of Education. The plan will be reviewed with certificated and classified staff upon their return to work and revised based on feedback received in addition to any revisions based on information by all federal, state and county governing agencies.

General Considerations for Distance Learning Plan Implementation

Develop the policies, plans, procedures, communications, and training needed to implement physical/social distancing in all settings, prior to re-opening.

- Identify all the settings and times where social distancing must occur.
- Determine the standards you will use to evaluate each setting. (Examples: Six-feet between student desks. Six-feet between each staff desk unless a partition is placed between them.)
- Determine the physical measures that will be needed for each setting. (Examples: Furniture layouts, Plexiglas barriers, painted lines to indicate spacing, signage, etc.)
- Determine the process that will be used to implement the physical measures needed in each setting. (Examples: Altering room set-ups, installing barriers, painting marks on pavement, placing signage, etc.)
- Determine the policies that will be needed to support and maintain these measures. (Example: Policy statements restricting furnishings and layouts.)
- Determine if job responsibilities or working conditions will be impacted by these measures.
- Determine how to communicate the rules associated with these measures to staff, students, parents, vendors, and visitors.
- Determine how to train students on new routines.

What is Distance Learning?

Distance learning is defined in Education Code Section 43500(a).

- Distance learning means instruction in which the pupil and instructor are in different locations and pupils are under the general supervision of a certified employee of the local educational agency (LEA). Distance learning may include, but is not limited to, all of the following:
Interaction, instructions, and check-ins between teachers and pupils through the use of a computer or other communications technology.

- Video or audio instruction in which the primary mode of communication between the pupil and certified employee is online interaction, instructional television, video, telecourses, or other instruction that relies on computer or communications technology.
- The use of print, video, and audio materials incorporating assignments that are the subject of written or oral feedback.

Who can participate in Distance Learning?

All students who are medically fragile, would be put at risk by in person instruction, or who are self-quarantining because of concerns of exposure to COVID-19 are eligible.

What is considered “live interaction”?

Education Code Section 43503 requires that distance learning include “daily live interaction.” Daily live interaction is two-way communication between a certificated employee and student each instructional day, at the actual time of occurrence. Daily live interaction is required for every student with both a certificated employee and their student peers. In particular English learners, and students with special needs benefit from daily oral language development opportunities.

Examples of daily live interaction include in-person and virtual communication or interactions, including but not limited to synchronous online instruction (per statute) and phone calls where both parties communicate at the time of occurrence. One-way communication, including voicemails, emails, or print materials, is not considered a live interaction.

Pursuant to Education Code Section 43503(b)(6), if daily live interaction is not feasible as part of regular instruction, the governing board or body of the LEA shall develop, with parent and stakeholder input, an alternative plan for frequent live interaction that provides a comparable level of service and school connectedness.

What will be used to measure student attendance?

Daily participation is used to track attendance and ensure daily engagement by all students in learning activities. However, documenting daily participation may be met through daily live interaction with a teacher or virtual assignments. Daily participation may also be documented through participation in online activities, completion of regular assignments, and contacts between employees of the LEA, including those other than teachers, and pupils or parents or guardians.

What is required if students are not participating regularly in instruction?

Education Code Section 43504(f) requires each LEA to develop written procedures for tiered reengagement strategies for all pupils who are absent from distance learning for more than three schooldays or 60 percent of the instructional days in a school week. These procedures shall include, but are not limited, to verification of current contact information for each enrolled pupil, daily notification to parents or guardians of absences, a plan for outreach from the school to determine pupil needs including connection line with health and social services as necessary and, when feasible, line transitioning the pupil to full-time in-person instruction.
