Social, Moral, Spiritual, Cultural Policy

At Bilton School we champion and firmly believe in a holistic education and curriculum that ensures that our students receive a comprehensive SMSC experience. This belief is in line with the whole school ethos of 'be the best you can be', our values are:

British Values: To underpin what it means to be a British Citizen in a modern and diverse Britain

Diversity: To ensure acceptance of all individuals regardless of: social and ethnic backgrounds, different genders and sexual orientation

Cultural Respect: To recognise and celebrate differences

Community: To ensure that despite our differences, we share a common perspective to engage in joint action to create a positive school community at Bilton School.

We recognise that the importance of students, spiritual, moral, social and cultural development plays a significant part not only in our student's ability to learn and achieve, but in their ability to relate fully to and have the ability to access the world they live in. We therefore aim to provide an education that provides children with opportunities to explore and develop their own values and beliefs, whilst recognising that those of others may differ.

We provide our students with the opportunities to learn about different beliefs, have a spiritual awareness, encourage high standards of personal behaviour at Bilton School. We aim to encourage students to learn the importance of having a positive caring attitude towards other people, an understanding of their social and cultural traditions and an appreciation of the diversity and richness of other cultures. We encourage and promote the sharing of these values through our Character and Culture, wider school curriculum and extra-curricular activities.

Worldwide Views & Beliefs plays an important role in human life so we have developed a rich and varied curriculum that meets the character and culture of Bilton School and its students. Each student is given the time to gain knowledge, show understanding and critically think about a variety of issues that affect our world today and how different people respond to these issues, depending on their own worldwide view and belief system. This enables our pupils to develop their own worldwide view, meaning they can take a full and informed part of our world in the 21st Century.

The integrity and spirituality of faith backgrounds will be respected and explored. The diversity of spiritual traditions will be recognised, and students will be given access to a wide range of cultural, religious and philosophical beliefs during their time at Bilton School. We celebrate and mark different religious events throughout our wider school provisions: workshops, assemblies, talks, whole school activities and displays.

All adults will model and promote socially responsible behaviour, treating all people as valuable individuals and showing respect for students and their families and stakeholders. We believe, students should be given every opportunity to learn to differentiate between right and wrong in as far as their actions affect other people. They will be encouraged to value themselves and others. Students should understand their rights and accept their responsibilities and the need to respect the rights of others. School expectations and values emphasis and promote responsible behaviour.

Promoting SMSC and British Values

In the document "Promoting fundamental British values as part of SMSC in schools: Departmental advice for maintained schools - November 2014" the DfE state:

"Schools should promote the fundamental British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty, and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs. This can help schools to demonstrate how they are meeting the requirements of section 78 of the Education Act 2002, in their provision of SMSC. Actively promoting the values means challenging opinions or behaviours in school that are contrary to fundamental British values..."

The new Ofsted framework 2019 states:

The provider prepares learners for life in modern Britain by:

- equipping them to be responsible, respectful, active citizens who contribute positively to society
- developing their understanding of fundamental British values
- developing their understanding and appreciation of diversity
- celebrating what we have in common and promoting respect for the different protected characteristics as defined in law.

The Teachers' Standards expect teachers, "to uphold public trust in their profession and maintain high standards of ethics and behaviour, within and outside school. This includes not undermining fundamental British values."

Through our SMSC Policy, Bilton School will:

- Enable students to develop their self-knowledge, self-esteem and self-confidence
- Enable students to distinguish right from wrong and to respect the civil and criminal law of England
- Encourage students to accept responsibility for their behaviour, show initiative, and to understand how they can contribute positively to the lives of those living and working in the locality of the school and to society more widely
- Enable students to acquire a broad general knowledge of and respect for public institutions and services in England
- Continue to encourage tolerance and harmony between different cultural traditions by enabling students to acquire an appreciation of and respect for their own and other cultures
- Encourage respect for other people
- Encourage respect for democracy and support the participation in the democratic processes, including respect for the basis on which the law is made and applied in England.

The list below describes the understanding and knowledge expected of students as a result of the School promoting fundamental British Values and SMSC:

- An understanding of how citizens can influence decision-making through the democratic process
- An appreciation that living under the rule of law protects individual citizens and is essential for their wellbeing and safety
- An understanding that there is a separation of power between the executive and the judiciary, and that while some public bodies such as the police and the army can be held to account through Parliament, others such as the courts maintain independence
- An understanding that the freedom to choose and hold other faiths and beliefs is protected in law
- An acceptance that other people having different faiths or beliefs to oneself (or having none) should be accepted and tolerated, and should not be the cause of prejudicial or discriminatory behaviour
- An understanding of the importance of identifying and combatting discrimination.

Performance Monitoring and Evaluation

Provision for SMSC is monitored and reviewed on a regular basis.

This is achieved by:

Monitoring teaching and learning through quality assurance of the Character and Culture Curriculum

Regular discussions at staff and Trust meetings. Audit of policies and Schemes of learning, including the school's approach to their curriculum. Implementing, reviewing and responding to feedback from staff, students and the wider school community.

We firmly believe that the effective provision and delivery of our curriculum serves to accomplish all the aforementioned aspects of SMSC development and will purposefully ensure our students develop the skills they need to achieve in life, but moreover it will enable them to build on their own personal achievements and memorable experiences.
