A large-scale construction site featuring a tall, grey concrete structure on the left and a lower, reddish-brown building on the right. A prominent red crane is positioned on the roof of the concrete structure, lifting a long, dark metal beam. The ground is muddy and uneven, with a white pickup truck and a yellow trailer parked nearby. Several workers in safety gear are visible on the roof of the concrete structure. A tall, thin tower stands in the background. The sky is overcast.
