A little about me...

My name is Florence Folsie. This is my fifth year teaching eighth grade at Hammond Westside. I enjoy it more and more every year that I am here. I work with a wonderful group of educators. We spend our time making each other better educators in the classroom. I enjoy coaching Volleyball and supporting our young athletes as they work hard to make themselves better.

Curriculum

Unit 1

- We have been making connections throughout the unit text in order to determine themes.
- We have engaged in research and discussed intelligence.
- We are about to begin writing argumentative essay about whether the surgery Charlie undergoes improves his life or makes his life worse.

Unit 2

- Students will read "Nothing But the Truth" in addition to the Unit texts.
- We will aim to understand how authors use narrators and point of view to influence the reader's perspective and understanding.
- They will practice writing using different points of view to impact meaning, and examine bias in media sources
