

STUDENT OF THE MONTH

November/December 2020

Anna Restano

Anna is an excellent student. She always gives her very best academically and has worked hard to improve both her study and social skills to prepare not only for exams but also the world beyond school.

Anna is a quiet and sometimes serious student who could be easy to overlook within a class of 20 but she has a kind heart and a brilliant work ethic. She is a loyal, reliable friend and a member of our school community who encompasses the values of Prior Park School.

Mrs K Lawton

Anna is an outstanding member of our house and a committed and passionate house captain. She cares profoundly about all our house tutees. She appreciates the difficulty in getting to know her fellow house mates but has gone above and beyond in her efforts to make herself a familiar face to all those pupils she represents.

She, along with Mai (the other Elliott House Captain) have organised assemblies, off their own back, on Study Skills and what it means to be a member of Elliott House.

She is proactive, emailing me with ideas and suggestions on how to improve the profile of the House Captaincy role throughout the school. She regularly updates our house board and is extremely reliable and supportive. I am extremely proud of her efforts and feel this award is truly well deserved. It is a pleasure having you in our team and thank you for supporting everyone in Elliott House.

Mr R Azopardi (Head of House)

Anna is a hardworking, kind, helpful student. She is a quiet achiever who always looks out for other. She is a pleasure to teach.

Mrs J Curran

Anna has shown excellent ability to set goals and be persistent in achieving them. She not only flourishes in the academic aspect of school, but is also always willing to lend a helping hand.

She is compassionate and willing to put others before herself. This is reflected in her recent efforts to help the Year 7's and 8's with their revision skills. I receive daily emails about her academic success.

Her teachers highlight that she is a hardworking and conscientious student, who goes above and beyond in her lessons. Well done Anna!
