

STUDENT OF THE MONTH

March 2021

Sebastian Desoisa

Seb is one of the most conscientious and responsible students I have met and I am so proud to have him in my form.

Sebastian works so hard to ensure his golfing commitments don't get in the way of his school work and he has seen successes on both sides.

Seb is always there to lend a helping hand to any of his peers and has developed an excellent rapport with all of his teachers.

Seb is a fantastic student to work with and an excellent example for all.

Ms M Porro

Seb strikes the right balance between ambition, determination and pursuit for excellence whilst keeping a level head and being an excellent friend to his peers.

He arrives to school with a smile on his face and always maintains a positive outlook on life. Seb is an excellent role model to his peers; he gives nothing but his absolute best to every task and is reflective in his approach. He is a pleasure to spend time with and he has the school's backing in his Golfing pursuits.

Mrs C Devincenzi-Clemens

Seb Desoisa - such talent and achievement is difficult for a boy to carry without believing he is better than others in everything. Seb reveals in his behaviour around school, his sensible and balanced approach to friendship and having mates and no hint whatsoever of arrogance or complacency that he does not believe this.

Who knows - he might go on to become one of the world's greatest golfers...but he is already proving pretty great as a member of our community.

Coping with having a passion taken away by two lockdowns, coping other times with balancing work with a frightening commitment of time to his passion and smiling and being kind and thoughtful throughout says much about Seb and who he will be as a man.

Mr P Watts

Despite Seb being the best golfer in Andalusia, he is also one of the most polite and helpful students in Wellington.

He is always the first to volunteer to help with anything within the house. From crazy dances to being extremely competitive on the sports field. His modesty about his sporting talents ensures that he is liked by all his peers in the house.

He is already an extremely good role model for the younger pupils and is always willing to help them out.
