Employee Responsibilities Regarding Student Harassment, Intimidation, and Bullying

The personal safety and welfare of each child is of paramount concern to the Board of Trustees, employees, and patrons of the District. It is of particular importance employees within the District become knowledgeable and thoroughly educated as to their legal and ethical responsibilities regarding intervention and reporting of student harassment, intimidation, and bullying.

Intervention

District employees are authorized, and expected to intervene or facilitate intervention on behalf of students facing harassment, intimidation, and bullying.

Intervention shall be designed to:

1. Correct the problem behavior;
2. Prevent another occurrence of the problem;
3. Protect and provide support for the victim of the act; and
4. Take corrective action for documented systemic problems related to harassment, intimidation, or bullying.

Professional Development

The District shall provide ongoing professional development to assist school employees in preventing, identifying, intervening, and responding to harassment, intimidation, and bullying.

The content of ongoing professional development for District employees shall include, but is not limited to:

1. School philosophy regarding school climate and student behavior expectations;
2. Definitions of harassment, intimidation, and bullying with specific examples;
3. School prevention strategies or programs including the identification of materials to be distributed annually to students and parents;
4. Expectations and examples of staff intervention to harassment, intimidation, and bullying; and

5. School process for responding to harassment, intimidation, and bullying including the reporting process for students and staff, investigation protocol, the involvement of law enforcement, related student support services, and parental involvement.

The training content, implementation, and date of the professional development provided to district staff shall be provided to the Board to maintain compliance and accountability.

Student Discipline

When disciplinary action is necessary for students engaging in harassment, intimidation and bullying, employees shall follow District policies 3330 and 3340.

Reporting

Any District employee who has witnessed, or has reliable information, that a student has been subject to harassment, intimidation or bullying, must report the incident to the designated school official in accordance with District policy and procedure 3295 and 3295P.

Knowingly submitting a false report under this policy shall subject the employee to discipline and may include termination.

The Superintendent, building principal, and/or their respective designee shall be responsible for receiving complaints alleging student harassment, intimidation, and bullying and will ensure that documented complaints will be maintained as a confidential file in the District office and reported as required by the State Department of Education.

Policy Distribution

The Superintendent or the Superintendent's designee shall annually distribute and review with employees the requirements, policies, and procedures to be followed concerning the handling of student harassment, intimidation, and bullying and shall include this information in employee handbooks. All new employees will be given these policies and procedures as part of their orientation program.
