

What is a School-Parent Compact?

A School-Parent Compact for Achievement is an agreement that parents, students, and teachers develop together. It explains how parents and teachers will work together to make sure all our students reach grade-level standards.

Effective compacts:

- Link to goals of the school improvement plan
- Focus on student learning skills
- Describe how teachers will help students develop these skills using high-quality instruction
- Share strategies parents can use at home
- Explain how teachers and parents will communicate about student progress
- Describe opportunities for parents to volunteer, observe, and participate in the classroom

Jointly Developed

The parents, staff, and students of Rossville Elementary School developed this School-Parent Compact for Achievement. Teachers suggested home learning strategies; parents added ideas to make them more specific and students told us what would help them learn. Meetings and surveys are held each year to review the Compact and make changes based on student needs.

Parents are welcome to contribute comments at any time.

If you would like to volunteer, participate, and/or observe in the classroom, please contact our Family Engagement Coordinator, Jennifer Silecchia, at (706)866-5901 or jennifersilecchia@walkerschools.org

In the Classroom:

Rossville Elementary teachers will work with students and their families to support students' success in all academic areas. Some of our key connections with families will be:

- Provide monthly newsletters that show what is happening in the school and classroom. These will be shared by teachers and posted to our school Facebook Page & Class Dojo.
- Promote open communication between students, parents, and teachers.
- Celebrate big and small successes daily.
- Offer Family Nights that focus on learning in a fun and creative way and also sharing student data.
- Share student standards and goals at our virtual parent workshops.
- All grade levels will send home library books on the student's grade level.

At Home:

- Openly communicate with teachers.
- Checking folders/agenda each night.
- Checking Class DOJO
- Help your child read fluently by reading with or listening to your child read each night.
- Try to attend Family Learning Nights and events to learn new ways to help my student.
- Look for the class newsletter each month to see what my child is learning and how to help them.

Rossville Elementary Students

Rossville Elementary students worked with faculty and staff to come up with ways that they can help in the partnership for success. Students recommended the following things that they can do to help the partnership:

- Bring home newsletters and notices about workshops, family learning nights, and other Parent Involvement events and encourage my parents to attend.
- Ask my parent for help with my school work and homework, and show them how I am doing it.
- Ask my parent to read to and with me every night.
