Principal's Message

Dilworth Family,

As we begin a new week, we would appreciate your help in claiming some of the lost and found items we've put out in the hallway by the library. Please take a look at the MANY ITEMS that are there when you come to the school. If you can't come earlier this week to check out the lost and found, then please come into the building on Friday after the Halloween parade. We will be donating these items to charity the first week of November, so remember to check it out this week.

The Halloween parade this Friday will begin at 9 a.m. We ask that there are no weapons brought to school as part of a costume. Masks are allowed if the children can clearly see where they are walking. Please gather (bring your own chairs) on the grass edge around the asphalt part of the playground if you come to watch the parade.

Flu shots for students only will be given on November 3rd in the Dilworth office. A letter and forms were sent home with students last week. If you want your student to have a flu shot, you must return the filled out forms to the office by November 2nd. If you have any questions, please call the office at 801-481-4806.

Kind regards,

Richard Squire, Principal

Felicia Wood, Assistant Principal

BATTLE of the Books for October will be held AFTER School Wednesday, October 27th. Any 4th, 5th or 6th Grader interested in discussing The Canyon's Edge by Dusti Bowling, Show Me a Sign by Ann Clare LeZotte, and My Life as a Potato by Arianne Costner is invited! We will meet in the Library from 3:20-3:50 p.m. Snacks provided.

DRAGONS are READERS - October Reading Bookmarks have been passed out. Within library lessons, we have discussed the various genres of books and the fact that many students are "stuck" in one genre and that it's time to get "unstuck" and branch out into other genres reading a whole range of books to become better scholars and more knowledgeable about the world around us! Are you filling out your bookmarks both at home and at school, daily? Are you reading a variety of books? Bookmarks will be picked up next week. Be sure to turn your bookmark into your teacher next Monday or Tuesday.
