R215 PROMOTION, ACCELERATION AND RETENTION

Acceleration – Elementary School Students (Grades 1 – 5)

Guidelines for the acceleration of students at the elementary school level are attached hereto as Attachment A. The guidelines attached hereto are meant to guide the determination as to whether a student is eligible for acceleration. The Superintendent or designee shall have the final decision-making authority with respect to whether a child will be accelerated. This decision shall be based not only on the guidelines attached, but also on a determination by the Superintendent or designee that acceleration is in the individual student’s best educational interest, as determined by the Superintendent or designee.

Acceleration – Middle School Students (Grades 6 – 8)

Guidelines for the acceleration of students at the middle school level are attached hereto as Attachment B. The guidelines attached hereto are simply meant to guide the determination as to whether a student is eligible for acceleration. The Superintendent or designee shall have the final decision-making authority with respect to whether a child will be accelerated. This decision shall be based not only on the guidelines attached, but also on a determination by the Superintendent or designee that acceleration is in the student’s best educational interest, as determined by the Superintendent or designee.
