

Course Name: AP European History
School Year: 2021-2022

Course Purpose and Relevance:

This college-level course provides a basic narrative of events and movements in Europe from 1450 to present. The course will develop an understanding of several principle themes in modern European History, an ability to analyze historical evidence, and an ability to express that understanding in writing. An emphasis will be placed upon examination of scholarly text, critical thinking, independent study, and research.
