

XAVIER HIGH SCHOOL

Headmaster's Office

Xavier High School is searching for a motivated and collaborative teacher to join our mission driven team of educators as a short-term substitute for medical leave from November 29- December 22. As a Xavier faculty member, you will be responsible for teaching talented young men from diverse backgrounds and means to take responsibility, lead with integrity, act justly, serve others, and pursue excellence in an academically rigorous, Catholic, Jesuit, college preparatory environment in New York City. Your responsibilities will include lesson planning, classroom management, grading assignments, and evaluating students' progress.

In addition to having excellent written and verbal communication skills, a qualified candidate will also meet the following criteria.

- A minimum of a bachelor's degree in History or Social Science.
- A capacity to teach at the AP level- specifically AP Comparative Government (specifically The United Kingdom and Russia)
- A capacity to teach freshmen level Greco-Roman History
- Developed interpersonal skills for effective collaboration in a team environment.
- Enthusiasm for the work of education in a Catholic, Jesuit context

Compensation is commensurate with experience, and those with previous teaching experience are preferred. Interested candidates should submit cover letter, resume and three professional references to Mr. Ed Young, Chair of the Social Studies Department (younge@xavierhs.org)
