THE CLASS OF 2023 & THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC

The Class of 2023 learned from home from March 2020-June 2020. The 2020-2021 District plan for reopening prioritized teachers interacting with their students in real-time, with a commitment to more synchronous learning for every student to ensure students have rich school experiences both in person and virtually. Students were assigned to a learning cohort - HUSKY, PRIDE, or HARRISON in accordance with the district's Reopening Plan. Learning cohorts determined the schedule students followed during hybrid and fully virtual learning. Those students in the Husky or Pride groups attended school every-other-day while those students in the Harrison group attended school every day based on their unique learner profiles.

Primarily students experienced the hybrid instructional model, which included in-person and learning from home. Based on social distancing and safety guidelines, no more than 50% of students were able to attend school at one time. In the hybrid learning model, students were divided into two groups Husky & Pride. Student groups attended alternating days of on-site synchronous learning and received off-site synchronous and asynchronous experiences when learning from home. If a parent/guardian selected the fully virtual learning option, their child was assigned to a student group (Husky or Pride) and followed the hybrid learning schedule and accessed classroom instruction virtually.

Students returned to in-person instruction for the 2021-2022 school year and remain to date. As a result of the pandemic New York State exam policies shifted to accommodate the diverse changes in learning communities across the state. Please note that New York State Regents exams may be listed as a numerical score, "E" for exemption, and/or "SA" for Special Appeal. All categories meet New York State requirements for graduation.
