INTERNATIONAL INCLUSIVE LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

Lead Inclusion
all belong. all learn. all succeed.

inclusive leader

International schools worldwide are taking on the important initiative of INCLUSION! The International Inclusive Leadership Program responds to the critical and growing need for school personnel at international schools to have solid, research-based skills in serving students with learning and behavior differences. The 5-course program prepares leaders, general educators, learning support educators, counselors, and other school personnel to lead teams in the design and delivery of effective accommodations, modifications, and interventions within general education settings. Courses in the program are delivered in a blended format by experts in the area of inclusion, special education, response to intervention, and international education. For each course, there will be 15 hours of face-to-face learning alternating between Shanghai Community International School and Hangzhou International School. The remaining 30 hours of each course will be online. Participants can opt to take an additional five online courses (10 total) to earn a Master of Arts degree in Educational Leadership from San Diego State University.

Fees and Graduate Credit

BASE: The base fee for participation in the coursework is $750 USD per course.

GRADUATE CREDIT: Tuition for graduate credit from San Diego State University is an additional $390 USD ($1140 total) per course for the five courses in this program.

MA DEGREE: Tuition for the additional five, online courses (courses 6-10) to complete a master's degree are at SDSU's usual tuition rate.
