Principal's Phoenix Flyers:

Hello RAHS Families and Community –

We have an absolutely fabulous congratulations this week to the Seattle Southside Chamber of Commerce

Educator of the Year – Mr. Nik Joshi! The Southside Chamber annually recognizes an educator that demonstrates exemplary teaching methods and innovation of style, and who has a significant impact on students, parents, and peers. Mr. Joshi is that special educator!

For the nomination, one individual described Mr. Joshi as “more than just a teacher – he is a mentor, an advocate, an inspiration and maybe most importantly, makes us believe that anything is possible when you work together.” Mr. Joshi does so much for our school – from leading our Phoenix Force Robotics Team, to facilitating the International Space Settlement Design Competition, and to ensuring students have the highest level of academic experience at RAHS.

In his acceptance speech, along with the Southside Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Joshi thanked his family, his wonderful colleagues for inspiring him and supporting his “crazy” ideas, and the office staff – the heartbeat of the school who keep the school running and give teachers like Mr. Joshi the time and support to excel. And of course Mr. Joshi is so thankful for his students – the heart of his instruction, coming ready to learn each day.

We would also like to thank the Chamber Executive Vice President Samantha Le, who is a new mentor for RAHS along with our partner sponsors Port of Seattle, Alaska Airlines, and Boeing.

Mr. Joshi, we are so incredibly proud of you! Congratulations!

Therese Tipton

PTA Reflections Contest

The Raisbeck Aviation PTA is looking for art submissions for this year's National PTA Reflections contest. The Reflections Contest is a themed, national contest that encourages students to express themselves and increase their involvement in the arts. The theme this year is: "I Will Change the World By..."

Students will compete in the High School Division for grades 9-12. Students can submit to more than one category, but are only allowed one submission per category. The categories are: Dance, Film, Literature, Music Composition, Photography, and Visual Arts.

Detailed entry rules can be found at www.wastatepta.org/events-programs/reflections under the Student Entry Rules Tab. Or you can view our PTA's Google Slide Presentation which provides a more simple step by step overview of the Reflections Contest.

Any student with a disability as defined under the Americans with Disabilities Act can submit to the Special Artist Division. More information can be found under the Special Artist Division Tab. The PTA has a small budget and can help purchase materials for any student in need. To request assistance, or if you have any other questions regarding the reflections contest, please email Raisbeckreflections@gmail.com.

Your contest submission, along with a student entry form, must be completed and submitted by Monday, November 29th. After the PTA has received all submissions, local artists will review the submissions and decide which submissions should advance to the state level. At the state level student's submissions will compete against other highschoolers in the state. The winners at the state level will go on to compete nationally in Washington D.C. Competing at this level is a very prestigious honor.

Parents are asked to encourage and support their students with time management, materials, etc., but are asked to not assist in any way with the students interpretation of the theme or artistic expression.

Again, please reach out with any questions to Raisbeckreflections@gmail.com.

Thank you,

Raisbeck Aviation PTSA
