

2021-2022 TITLE I DISTRICT LEVEL FAMILY ENGAGEMENT PLAN

Calvert County Public Schools

WHAT IS TITLE I?

Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act is the largest federally funded education program that provides extra support to students who are academically at-risk in public and private schools. Through Title I, the government allocates funds to school districts around the country based on the number of low-income families in each district. Title I funds are designed to help close the achievement gap between disadvantaged students and their peers. The purpose of Title I is to help ensure that all children can obtain a high-quality education and reach proficiency on challenging state academic standards and assessments.

CALVERT COUNTY PUBLIC SCHOOLS FAMILY ENGAGEMENT POLICY

Calvert County Public Schools (CCPS) and the Board of Education recognize that families play an important role in their child's education as well as prepare them for academic achievement and life-long learning.

PURPOSE OF THE DISTRICT LEVEL FAMILY ENGAGEMENT PLAN

The District Level Family Engagement Plan in Title I affirms the critical importance of the role of parents and caregivers in the education of Title I students. The District Level Plan is based on Policy #8123 (Community- revised 10/10/19) that are compatible with Title I requirements.

- To recognize that parents, caregivers and the community play an important role in the education and achievement of students; and encourage parental, caregiver, and community involvement through a variety of opportunities which providing the means to keep school safe, orderly, and focused on learning
- To ensure that all staff support families
- To encourage businesses and community organizations to engage with the district as advocates, allies, and partners to improve equity, access, and educational outcomes for all students
- To encourage an active volunteer program which enhances students' educational experiences and increased parental and community involvement
- To encourage community members to meet with the Board members to provide feedback on district initiatives outside of board meetings

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL PARTNERSHIPS

To ensure that you are an equal partner in your child's education, CCPS Title I will:

- Help families understand State and local academic standards and assessments.
- Show families how to monitor their child's progress and work with teachers to improve their child's achievement.
- Ensure that Title I schools host family engagement events at various times and provide materials that will help families support their child at home.
- Encourage families to volunteer and join organizations such as the PTO.
- Coordinate family engagement efforts with local, state and federal programs and community partners.
- Support and train principals, school staff, and families on how to plan and promote family engagement activities.
- Offers interpreting services, childcare and transportation.
- Offers Title I documents in your native language- School Level Family Engagement Plan, Compact, District Level Family Engagement Plan and any other Title I documents used by Title I Schools or Calvert County Public Schools.

PARTNERSHIPS WITH PROGRAMS AND COMMUNITY AGENCIES

State and Federal partnerships such as the Judy Center, Head Start, Calvert County Public Library, HIPPIY/Healthy Families, Infants and Toddlers, and others are invited to all Title I family meetings and events.

VOLUNTEER IN YOUR CHILD'S SCHOOL

Volunteers assist CCPS employees and supplement student services and learning opportunities. Volunteers are not paid staff members; however, they are expected to always follow CCPS policies, rules, and procedures. The CCPS Volunteer Handbook located on the Become a Volunteer webpage on the CCPS Website. The webpage provides pertinent information on the volunteer application, what training you need, CCPS guidelines and responsibilities, safety procedures and other helpful resources for volunteers.

Those interested in volunteering may visit the Become a Volunteer webpage at: Become a Volunteer - Calvert County Public School District \(calvertnet.k12.md.us\) and complete the "Online Volunteer Application Process."
