

English Intent Statement

Intent

At Silverdale Primary Academy, we believe that a quality English curriculum should develop children's love of reading, writing and discussion. We have created a curriculum that encourages them to become enthusiastic and engaged with English. We have worked hard to provide our children with rich and varied learning opportunities that help them to become confident and enthusiastic learners. We want our children to have a positive attitude towards communication and to be able to independently express their emotions and their ideas. Through our English Curriculum, we strive to teach the children how important their reading, writing, speaking and listening skills will be in the real world.

We encourage all pupils to confidently communicate their knowledge, ideas and emotions through their writing. We want pupils to acquire a wide vocabulary, a solid understanding of grammar and to be able to spell new words; effectively applying the spelling patterns and rules they learn throughout their time in primary school. We want them to write clearly, accurately and coherently, adapting their language and style in and for a range of contexts, purposes and audiences. We believe that all pupils should be encouraged to take pride in the presentation of their writing, in part by developing a good, joined, handwriting style by the time they move to secondary school. We believe that all good writers refine and edit their writing over time, so we want children to develop independence in being able to identify their own areas for improvement in all pieces of writing, editing their work effectively during and after the writing process. We understand the importance of parents and carers in supporting their children to develop both grammar, spelling and composition skills, and so we want to encourage a home-school partnership which enables parents and carers to understand how to enhance the skills being taught in school.

- context
- stage of learning
- capabilities • interests
- prior experiences

The national curriculum for English aims to ensure that all pupils:

- read easily, fluently and with good understanding
- develop the habit of reading widely and often, for both pleasure and information
- acquire a wide vocabulary, an understanding of grammar and knowledge of linguistic conventions for reading, writing and spoken language
- appreciate our rich and varied literary heritage
- write clearly, accurately and coherently, adapting their language and style in and for a range of contexts, purposes and audiences
- use discussion in order to learn; they should be able to elaborate and explain clearly their understanding and ideas

- are competent in the arts of speaking and listening, making formal presentations, demonstrating to others and participating in debate.

In addition to daily literacy lessons, children excel in early reading through the use of the Daily Supported Reader, Destination Reader and Accelerated from reception to develop a range of reading skills, as well as a love of reading through carefully chosen and engaging texts and through staff modelling and promoting a love of reading for pleasure. We use a wide variety of quality texts and resources to motivate and inspire our children. The English lessons are structured so that as grammar is taught to pupils to ensure they develop their skills in this area. The writing journey begins with pupils recording what they know about the genre they are starting. We teach writing through high-quality texts and creative approaches to enhance the writing process. This approach motivates and engages our learners. Throughout the week the writing journey builds and skills are developed which are then incorporated into an independent piece of writing which is published. The pupils are immersed in the text and teachers model the writing throughout the whole journey to support pupils with their writing. All children are challenged, appropriate to their capabilities; children who find aspects of their learning more difficult are appropriately supported so that they too are enabled to experience success.
