QSI OVERSEAS BENEFITS AT A GLANCE

Competitive Salaries:

QSI overseas contracted teachers receive competitive salaries and many additional benefits.

International Health Insurance:

QSI pays each overseas hire teacher's health insurance premium. This is the amount QSI pays:

Single Teacher:	$5,600/year
Married Couple:	$9,800/year
Married Couple with Children:	$16,400/year

Commitment Bonus:

Awarded to each teacher who commits to teaching at QSI the next school year.
$3,500 – Single, $7,000 – Couple

End-of-Year Completion Bonus:

$2,000 – Single, $4,000 – Couple

Overseas Allowance:

$4,500 – Single, $9,000 – Couple

School Tuition:

Tuition for each QSI teacher's children ages 3 and above is paid by QSI.

Transportation: Depending on the QSI school location, a flight stipend or air transportation will be provided for the employee and minor dependent(s) from the nearest authorized airport to the school.

Opportunity to Transfer:

QSI teachers are eligible to join the teacher transfer process after successfully completing 2 years at the current school and provided that a suitable position is found. School administrators must complete 3 successful years to be eligible for a transfer.

Housing:

Depending on the QSI school location, a housing stipend will be given per month or the school will provide suitable housing with basic furnishings.

Sick Leave:

10 days per year; unused sick leave accumulates during the years that a teacher works for QSI.

Work Visa Costs:

Paid by QSI.

Sabbatical Leave:

A teacher must complete six full-time years with QSI to be eligible for a one-year sabbatical to pursue education-related study.

QSI Pre-Arrival Orientation:

QSI provides online orientation about important elements of our schools and what is expected of our educators. The topics include the history and development of QSI, the Success Orientations, the Mastery Learning model of education, and successful adjustment to new cultures.

Departure Bonus:

This bonus is $2,500 per teacher or $5,000 per teaching couple for those planning to leave QSI.

Master of Science:

This opportunity is provided along with a cohort of QSI teachers through the State University of New York. 10 courses are conducted via a hybrid approach: online courses, summer institutes, and professional development classes.

Severance Pay:

QSI gives Severance Pay to teachers who depart from QSI; the amount is $500 per teacher for successfully completing two consecutive years with QSI; an additional $100 per teacher is added for each school year thereafter.

EXAMPLE:

Summary of the SALARY and BENEFITS of a QSI Single Teacher with a Master's Degree and Seven Years Teaching Experience:

	Year 1	Year 2
Salary	$35,400	$36,200
End of Year Completion Bonus	$2,000	$2,000
Overseas Allowance	$4,500	$4,500
Commitment Bonus		$3,500
Total Salaries Paid as Net	$41,900	$46,200

Note:Single Status Overseas Hire Teacher with a Non-Teaching Spouse:

The non-teaching spouse must pay his/her own plane tickets, medical insurance, and visa costs.

Government Tax Exemption:

Obtaining this tax exemption is fully up to the individual teacher. QSI does not get involved and recommends teachers consult a tax specialist in their country of residence.
