The Webb School AP Policy

- The Webb School will not administer AP exams to students from other schools.
- Students must be enrolled in an AP course to register for the AP exam*.
- All AP students must take the AP exam in order to receive the AP weighting and possible college credit. We will adjust the transcript if needed.

An exception: If students would like to take AP Microeconomics or AP Macroeconomics, they must enroll in The Webb School's economics course (a semester offering). Likewise if students are interested in taking AP Psychology, they must be registered for The Webb School's Psychology class. Neither Econ nor Psychology are offered as AP courses at The Webb School and the students must study on their own to be prepared for the AP exam.*
