

CIS 2021 GLOBAL FORUM | Tuesday 16 November

09:00–10:00	Keynote #1: Shanton Chang Developing 21st Century Skills for the Post-Pandemic World
10:00–10:30	Break
10:00–10:30	Live Trivia Session
10:30–11:30	Breakout session Block 1
	Disrupting the High School Transcript: A New Way to Assess Student Competences	Working Towards Inclusion in University Admissions: Opportunities and Challenges	Roadmap: your guide to application and admissions in the Netherlands
11:30–12:00	Networking break
12:00–13:00	Collaborative Learning Session #1 (Led by: Courtney Lowe) Caring for the Learning Community
13:15–14:15	Live Member Connection
14:30–15:30	Breakout session Block 2
	The Future of College Admissions	Cross-Cultural Perspectives on High School to Higher Education Transitions & Wellbeing	A UK Update – It Never Gets Boring!
15:30–16:00	Break
16:00–17:00	Collaborative learning Session #2 (Led by: Marisa Modeski) Broadening Assessment & Skills Recognition

CIS 2021 GLOBAL FORUM | Wednesday 17 November

07:00–08:00	Live Member Connection
08:00–08:30	Networking break
08:30–09:30	Breakout session Block 3
	International Baccalaureate - DP and CP Curriculum update: Implications of COVID and new curriculum developments	Redesigning a Social Contract for Education: Approaches to Assessment and examining student competencies	Setting the Record Straight - University Admission Assessment in Hong Kong
09:30–10:00	Break
10:00–11:00	Keynote #2: Darnell Fine What If We Were Anti-Racist? Envisioning Admissions and Counseling Beyond Myths of Non-Racism
11:30–12:30	Collaborative learning Session #3 (Led by: Miguel Costa) Changing Financial Models for International Education
12:45–13:00	Break
13:00–14:00	Live Member Connection
14:15–14:25	Live Trivia Session
14:25–15:30	Break
15:30–16:30	Keynote #3: Bill Mitchell Five Steps to Rebuild Resilience and Energy
16:30–17:00	Break
17:00–18:00	Breakout session Block 4
	A Post-SAT World?	International Admissions During a Pandemic: Challenges and Opportunities	Brainstorming for the U.S. College Admissions Essays
18:00–18:30	Break
18:30–19:30	Collaborative learning Session #4 (Led by: Paul Greene) Cha-Cha-Changes - Sharing What we Learned This Year and Looking Ahead

CIS 2021 GLOBAL FORUM | Thursday 18 November

10:00–11:00	Collaborative learning Session #5 (Led by: Shanton Chang) Determining the Means to Engage Students
11:00–11:30	Break
11:30–12:30	Breakout session Block 5
	Social Media: Making the Best of Online Professional Resources	The Benefits of an In-Country Representative	Perspectives on best practice in student support and the transition to Higher Education
12:30–13:00	Break
13:00–13:15	Live Trivia Session
13:30–14:30	Live Member Connection
14:30–15:00	Break
15:00–16:00	Collaborative learning Session #6 (Led by: Laurie McLellan) Rethinking Global Learning Experiences when Mobility is Disrupted
16:00–16:30	Break
16:30–17:30	Keynote #4: Musimbi Kanyoro & Faith Abiodun Embracing the Courage to Adapt
17:30–18:00	Closing session

	On-demand Sessions (14 pre-recorded sessions)
Rapid Round	Assessing Educational Achievement: Does school accreditation matter?
Rapid Round	Colombia seen through the lens of a College Counselor
Full Length	Come together: Creating and sustaining engagement among incoming students using new technology
Full Length	Develop Intercultural Communication Skills to build a more inclusive classroom and recruitment practices
Full Length	How can we help students to discover, explore, and develop the skills needed for the future?
Rapid Round	How to predict students' grades accurately in a situation where assessments are online or hybrid
Full Length	Information Overload: 360° Evolution of Macro to Micro Communication
Full Length	International Student Recruitment and Admissions: What's Next?
Rapid Round	Nazarbayev Intellectual Schools (NIS) Qualification: Looking Back at 2021 and Plans for 2022
Rapid Round	Recruiting to Global South: Why Should we Care?
Rapid Round	Self-Care Tips for the Virtual International Recruiter
Rapid Round	Study in Central Europe
Rapid Round	Super-curricular why activities outside of the classroom matter
Full Length	The Wellbeing Framework for Navigating the New Normal