RGS

SUPERVISORY ASSISTANT

Newcastle upon Tyne Royal Grammar School

To start as soon as possible

THE POSITION

We have a great opportunity for a professional and enthusiastic individual to join our supervisory team in providing a high quality and responsive supervisory service. Applicants should be customer focused and actively support the ethos and aims of the school.

There is also scope for the successful candidate to take on additional duties and support the after-school provision, should this be of interest.

THE SCHOOL

Thomas Horsley, the original settlor of the Royal Grammar School Newcastle (RGS) pledged his legacy to the School in 1525. Almost 500 years later, RGS continues to flourish as the premier independent school in the North East of England and as one of the country's leading schools. The school was recently awarded The Sunday Times' North East Independent School of the Decade 2020. We regularly lead all northern schools in national league tables and pride ourselves on academic excellence, a high level of pastoral support, involvement in a wide range of sports and other co-curricular activities, and our commitment to bursaries and partnerships.

RGS has grown substantially in recent years. There are now some 1,330 students, over 260 of whom are in the Junior School. The Sixth Form of 350 students is one of the largest in the independent sector.

The school is based in the heart of the City, immediately opposite Jesmond Metro station. The school occupies over 30 acres of land and has state-of-the-art facilities, including five brand new art studios, a new library, a new Sixth Form Centre, a 25m swimming pool, two Sports Halls, a Performing Arts Centre, outdoor football/rugby pitches, an artificial turf pitch for hockey and the former County Cricket Ground.

JOB DETAILS

- The Supervisory Assistant will join a team of staff undertaking supervisory tasks across the school.
- The Supervisory Assistant will report to the Senior School Deputy Head.
- The principal duty will be to supervise students during the lunch period in social areas which may be inside and outside. This will include managing student behaviour in line with the school's policies and procedures.

QUALIFICATIONS/TRAINING/KNOWLEDGE/SKILLS

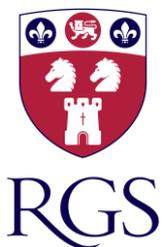

The following are desirable:

- Good verbal communication skills.
- A strong commitment to quality standards and good practice as they relate to behaviour.

application form. The post is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. Shortlisted candidates must declare any convictions, cautions, reprimands or final warnings that are not 'protected' as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (as amended in 2013 and 2020) via the self-declaration form. The successful applicant must obtain Children's Barred List clearance and DBS (Disclosure and Barring Service) clearance at enhanced level.

References

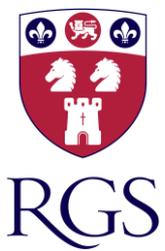

In keeping with the current Keeping Children Safe in Education regulations, references will be sought to support any appointment decisions that the school may make. Further information for applicants:

- the school will seek references for all teaching vacancies ahead of interview, one of which must be the individual's current or most recent employer.
- For support roles, it is a requirement for the school to request a reference from your current employer. It is our preference that we request references including one from your current employer before interview. Should you prefer for the school not to contact your current employer before an interview, you must supply details of an additional referee who is able to comment on your suitability for the role applied for. We will then contact your current employer at the point of making an offer of employment.
- In addition, the school will seek a reference from the relevant employer from the last time you worked with children, if you are not currently working with children in regulated activity.
- Internal references will be sought where appropriate.
- References must be completed by a senior person with appropriate authority. For teaching roles, this must be the head of a school. For support roles, this should be the employer, HR or senior level manager.
- Open references will not be accepted.
