

DEFINITION

The first day of an emergency removal is counted as a day of suspension when counting the number of days a student is suspended from school per offense.