

FOREFRONT SUICIDE PREVENTION LEARN® SAVES LIVES TRAINING

Developed by Forefront Suicide Prevention at the University of Washington, you will learn a five-step process to help you talk with someone you're worried about, learn if they are considering suicide and take early steps to keep them safe.

About Forefront:

Forefront in the Schools offers a comprehensive program that provides schools with a framework and tools to address youth suicide and suicidal behavior. Forefront in the Schools is a program of Forefront Suicide Prevention, a center of excellence at the UW School of Social Work.
