

Truth about Vaccines

Sore muscles, redness and fever after a shot are signs the vaccine is working.

Vaccines protect against deadly and dangerous diseases.

Vaccines have significantly decreased many diseases.

Vaccines do not make people sterile.

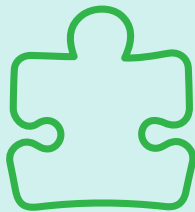

The ingredients in vaccines are safe unless you have a known allergy to an ingredient.

HIV can not be transmitted through a vaccine.

Inactivated vaccines cannot give you a disease.

Vaccines do not cause autism.

There are not tracking devices in vaccines.

