

THE FIELD TRIP GONE WRONG

One early morning my 5th grade class had a field trip. We were supposed to go on a field trip to a basketball game but we ended up at a hotel. The teacher Mrs. Conner was very confused about what was happening but she decided to go into the hotel and call the school since her phone did not have any service. When all of a sudden this big storm came out of nowhere. Mrs. Conner had all of the students evacuate the bus and go into the hotel. Once we got inside, the door closed behind us and it locked instantly. Unsure of what had happened the teacher tried to open all the doors. Mrs. Conner then said "children see if the windows will open". Bishop started to yell out "they won't budge". We all stared at each other in disbelief.

Mrs. Conner told every child to separate into different rooms and see what was in them. They all went to different rooms and all the doors were locked.

While we were walking around in each of the rooms some of us noticed that there were numbers located round the room.

Bishop said "I found a code piece under the blanket" and Malika said "I got another piece of code in the closet."

When all of a sudden Joehan said "I found a piece of code in the bed."

Elias found a piece of code as well but he found it in the room under the bed.

Mrs. Conner got one on the floor.

David got one under the closet, all the friends got different numbers, one got 0653 another 1198 and 556 and 8190 and 666.

They had to tell each other the numbers so they could escape. The correct code was 119866655681900653. They started telling each other their numbers.

Somehow after forever trying to get the right code they can escape the hotel and they finally got the right code.

One of them went missing so they ran back to the hotel. Then when they made it back to the hotel and one of them was killed by Nathan looked like mcal myris and he was standing on the dead body of joehan.

They ran to their home but then a killer was in their house and killed two people. Those two people were Malkia and bishop.

The last two people were David and Elias ran to a random house and they realized that they were in a haunted house.

So the craziest killer killed had a hockey and blood on it. He also had a big machete mask and his name was makai and he was captured by Elias and David and the killers got killed and they ran from home and lived on the street but then another killer came it was de'aaron and he had the intent to kill and he was blood thirsty he ran at us with two knives but they barely ran away they were barely fast enough to so they always watched there back to from than and forever they were scared and kept running and never stopped running but than they both got tired so they hid and took a break but than someone had found them the killer started chasing them again and they did not get enough rest and they started to run again but the break was not long enough so they stoped to take another break but he was right behind them de'aaron was right behind them so they had to keep running and then after two days of running they got killed.

Steven and his best friend Jeff decide to explore an abandoned Asylum on Halloween night. As soon as they go in they get the shivers. They both noticed the Asylums lights were on but the Asylum had been abandoned for many years.

Steven says "I'm gonna go explore, let's split up".

They both split up and head out to investigate the Asylum. All of a sudden the lights turned off but luckily Jeff had brought a flashlight. Jeff hears a scream "that sounds like Steven." says Jeff. He goes to investigate but he can't find him. Suddenly the lights turn on again he finds Steven and he is tied up. They run out of the Asylum feared. Steven says i don't wanna go there ever again. Jeff says I agree with you and they both go home Scared. They call the police and they come and look at the Asylum. They describe the suspect and they never find him but his thumb prints are identified as George. They went to sleep and woke up in the Asylum. This time the lights were off and Jeff didn't have a flashlight.

Suddenly a shadow kept repeating "WAKE UP, WAKE UP, WAKE UP" finally he woke up.

He thought it was real but figured out it was just a nightmare.

Jeff and Steven talked to each other

"Steven asked," Did you have a nightmare about the Asylum last night?"

Jeff replied, "Yes, I could barely go back to sleep".

They both go to eat breakfast and they have hallucinations.

Everything looks Paranormal and spooky.

They go back to the Asylum a year later and Steven says "This is where it all started. The Asylum was half gone/torn up Steven also says" A whole lot of things changed about this place". Steven gets flashbacks about him disappearing he remembers the person who took him and tied him up. Steven says" he never showed his face so I never knew who he was. He had to have known me because he knew my name so I think he was stalking me. As soon as Jeff showed up The Unknown Man disappeared so he definitely has paranormal abilities. It is the night after Halloween and Jeff wakes up in the middle of the night he sees the dark figure, So Jeff got up and The figure started waving and tilted it's head. Jeff starts chasing the man and finally catches him in the middle of the forest and about 10 more of the all black men appear. Jeff unmasks the man and it appears to be Steven. Jeff says "How could you". Steven says "it's another dream of yours". Jeff wakes up and his alarm goes off. Jeff laughs and says "What a dream". Steven is stuck in a room that has a code to get out and he looks around and says "It has been hours". Finally after hours he finds the code in the closet. The voice says " You have found the code congratulations now you will be set free".

The haunted attic.

It was a cold winter night, the wind was blowing and the wolves were howling. Inside my house there I was drinking a warm hot cup of fresh hot cocoa that just finished being made. I was snuggled up in a blanket on the nice soft leather couch watching the winter play that was on the TV. My brother Jacob was in his room. My guess is that he is probably knocked out on his nice new red and black bed that he got for his birthday two days ago. He does nothing but sleeps all day. I mean I know that he is a teenager but I don't know why he has to sleep all day and all night. But he is annoying so we don't have to talk about him. My dog bonnet woke up by the sound of me crying and screaming because I burnt my tongue on the hot cocoa that I just made. That was not the only bad thing that happened because the TV was not working and then suddenly the light started flickering and then the TV turned off and the power went off. I was so scared because mom and dad were gone and my brother Jacob did not even know what happened because he was asleep. So I decided to call my mom. THE thing is I could not find my phone because everything was dark and black. So I started to drag my fingers on the nasty stained carpet to feel for my phone. After like 20 minutes I finally found my phone under the couch. I picked it up and dialed my mom's phone number. She took forever to pick up the phone. But she did answer. And when she did I told her the power and the TV went out and that I could not see anything. She said that I needed to wake up my brother Jacob. And the moment those words came out of her mouth. I wanted to scream. I knew if I woke my brother up that he would kill me and yell at me to get out of his room. I know this because last time I woke him up he told me if I did not get out of his room he would put his pet spider on my face when I was sleeping. And I have a big fear of spiders so I never woke him up again. My mom was trying to get me killed by my brother. But my mom is my parent so I obeyed her so I said yes and I started walking through the hallway. I had to feel the walls and doorknobs to know where I was going because it was still pitch black and I could not see a thing. I finally reached my brother's room and I opened the door. The door was cracking very slowly. I yelled Jacob, wake up! He jumped out of his bed and said go away. I yelled at him to open his eyes. He did. He told me to turn his light on. I told him that the power went off and that mom told me to wake him up. He said okay and got out of bed he said that we needed flashlights. So I asked him where the flashlights were and he said they were in the attic. So I told him that we should get them. He agreed. We got the latter and climbed into the attic we have never been in before. It was smelly and bugs were everywhere. I put one foot in front of the other and climbed up into the attic. I saw a box that looked like it was open and I peeked in it and I saw 5 flashlights so I opened it and got the flashlights. my brother was coming up in the attic as well to get a flashlight he fell though because | It was still pitch black`. He got back up and walked up the ladder very slowly. He got into the attic and opened the box then he yelled out to me "we need to get out of here now because we need to turn the power back on." I said okay I agree and we walked towards the door. As we started to get closer to the door we began to hear a noise. My brother claimed it was a humming sound "I mean when I think about it it kind of did. Next thing you know we were at the door about to open it when The door slammed shut and I mean it was a loud slam like it was not any normal door closing. It was like my grandma when she got mad !!!!!!! My brother looked at each other with our eyes open wide. We waited for one of us to say something. after like 20 seconds I screamed and said what was that!!!! my brother yelled back to me and said I don't know. I told him that we need to leave as fast as we can. He agreed then we ran to the door as fast as we could. When we got to the door we tried to open it but it would not budge. My brother was so mad that he tried to kick down the door down. That's what he said but I think it was just because he was weak. But anyway that is not what we need to be talking about because we are trying to get out of this crazy attic. My brother had a good idea that we should scream for help !! I said it was a bad idea because no one was home except me, Jacob, and my dog. My brother said we could at least try to make someone hear us. So then we began screaming for help !! We screamed for about 15 minutes I told my brother that no one could hear us and if they could they would not know where to find us. He then asked me what we would do now. I said I don't know. I saw a moving shadow from the side of my eye I thought I was just seeing stuff because it was so dark so then I moved my flashlight where I saw the moving shadow. I saw nothing so then I asked my brother if he saw anything he said no and asked how I could see anything because of how dark it was. I told him that if I. put my flashlight in that area then I could see. He asked me where I saw the moving shadow. I showed him the place where I saw it but when I put my flashlight on that spot I saw the moving shadow again !! I asked my brother if he saw it he told me he did and that we needed to do something big so we can get out off here .I said I agree and we grabbed the biggest heaviest t box that I could find and told my brother that we could use this to push the door. He said that was a good idea. So then we both grabbed the box and ran with it to the door to where it could slam it. It made a crack in the door. My brother said that we should keep doing it till it breaks open. I agreed so then we kept doing it. We did it about 5 times till it made a big hole. I looked down and saw the latter was not there anymore. My brother asked what we would do now? I said that we could grab the spare blankets and pillows we keep up here and throw them down so when we jump down we would not hurt anything. He agreed so then we grabbed the pillows and blankets and throw them down. My brother went first he made it successfully so then I went I got down okay. I ran to my brother and told him we need to call mom we did and when she answered we told her everything. She told us she was on her way we stayed on the couch waiting for mom to get home. then suddenly the lights came on and we heard mom come home !! We ran outside and we both jumped into mom' arms. We both looked at each other and knew we were finally safe.

The haunted house

Chapter 1 moving to the haunted house....

"Come on everybody get up Quick and pack up!" My mom yelled with excitement.

We better get going," my mother said."

where are we going?" Charlotte asked."

We are moving to Texas! My mom said in excitement.!

b-but why? Asked Charlotte.

"Come on sweetie lets go,"

"No!" complained Charlotte.

"Excuse me!? What did you just say!?" Said my mom" said NO ,mom!"as i cried" i'm not gonna be leaving again mom this like the 10TH time i don't wanna be leaving my best friends again you said we weren't gonna be moving you promised me mom", i said...

"S-weetie..." said my mom

"NO!", "I said" mom it's enough i'll just pack my things` as i ran up stairs crying to my room and slammed the door to pack my things up"an hour later..." mom i'm done".....

"Sweetie, we don't have to go anymore said my mom "said my mom.

"It's fine now, mom lets just go already" I said.

Chapter 2 The road trip....

Once I was done packing my clothes, socks, shoes, and everything else I realized I should not have yelled at my mother like that. I must have made her really upset. Maybe she just wanted to make me happy and my brother, who is 5 years old and he doesn't even understand. But, yeah, maybe I should just go apologise to my mom and leave already! Charlotte said.

As I hopped onto the car it was silent just so silent but then i realized it was my shot to apologize to my mother.

"M-mom" yes hunny" said my mom, that's weird my mom never is like this l-like sad? Maybe she is really upset because of me.

I'll just say nothing "what were you saying hunny? Said my mom oh uh nothing mom i forgot what i was going to say" you sure? My mom said "yes of course mom" i said.

"On the way I slept until the car stopped.... Mom, why did we stop? I asked"
"to get some gas "she said , "Oh...ok umh and mom...i asked" yes sweetie" mom said "are we almost there? I asked, no it's 8:00 right now but we are get there tommorow at 1:40" my mom said .

A day later.....

Chapter 3 The arrival at the haunted house...

"Hey sweetie come on wake up we are finally here" said my mom... "Hold up, we are here already that quick!?B-But how did we make it here that quick this is weird!?" anyways ima just get my stuff and go inside.

Once I turned around I was just so excited but the house gave me the creeps I had GOOSEBUMPS! It had cobwebs, it was big, tall and black, dirty But anyways this is where the story begins.....

"As I walked on the porch the floor creaked pretty loud" I said, and in my head I was like WOW! "This house is really old and as I went walking to the door and it LITERALLY JUST CREAKED OPEN WIDE I FREAKED OUT!" "When the door creaked open i was still standing in the same area" i said, and my mom was right behind me" My mom said uh are you going or what?"she asked.

So I walked and as I walked in everything was completely dark inside there were even a lot of handprints one the window, bugs in the kitchen and more spiderwebs!But this was weird because, the whole Kitchen and the living Room... were all Upstairs and! Everything Was Literally Upside down!"THE COUCH THE TABLE THE COUNTERS,TV!.... Calm down Charlotte come down, i said to myself why am I even yelling!?" GIGGLES as i go back down stairs i feel so dumb lol because of the way i was talking to myself.

``BOOM BOOM.. "uh mom... YES sweetie!?" I heard noises in the basement I think".

"Well Why don't you go check what it is!?"

Uh o-ok mom i'll go check!" I said,As I went down into the basement I heard the movements in a trash can still.... I used the broomstick that was in the corner of the basement then.... I Walked Closer and Closer with one Step at a Time once I was like 1 feet away from it. I used the edge of the broomstick.

I mean it's not mine i just found but now it is..anyways and opened it up.....i screamed "AHHHHHH! as I ran to tell my mom! MOM MOM MOM MOM! I yelled , ``Honey what is it ?MOM you cannot believe what just happened!" What happened? Ok ok so i listin i went down to the basement right! "Yeah you did, Why?" I'll tell you in a sec. Let me just tell my story to you, ok?" my mom said," so as i was saying i went down the basement like you said right "yeah?"

"So while I was going down I got a broom stick in the corner of the basement just in case I needed it and I found the movements or noises in the trash can and as I went closer and closer I used my broomstick to take the lid off the trash can, and....A huge ratt! "Just jumped in my face."

"It was black, big with some white hair and it was the ugliest rat I had ever seen in my life! Yelled Charlotte.

"And yeah that's why I came up here screaming and now I need to take a bath." said Charlotte dramatically "

"That thing smelled horrible" and as I ran crying to the shower because of how smelly and disgusting it was! And yeah as I entered the bathroom I screamed again "AHHHH!

MOMMY!" what is it now honey!"THERE'S spiders ALL OVER THE PLACE AND THE SHOWER is GREEN! I'll just clean it I guess. AN hour later"... "ring around the rosie pockets filled with toussie ashes ashes we all fall down hehe haha again "Where is that coming from? I said.....I-Its from the basement. Maybe I should not go because there may be even more rats but I still hear singing ugh! You know what,

I'm just gonna go because I am not afraid!

But maybe I am you now what I'm just gonna Go! as I walked to the basement...
