

Ghost of Trinity!

By Trinity Dawn Archer

Once it was 2020, pitch black at 12:00 PM in a graveyard. Trinity and Emma were driving in a pitch black tall truck with Amy in the back.

"Trinity, do you think anybody will find Amy in the back of the graveyard?" said Emma.

"HA, of course they won't do you think they are not scared of a graveyard?" Trinity said in a sassy way.

"maybe!" claimed Emma.

"Look Emma!" Trinity said with an excited voice.

"oh we're here O-O." said Emma. We buried Amy.

The next day we went to school. A few days pass and we started to see stuff float and fly at us. We didn't think much of this because we just thought it was air vents. But it wasn't. You see Amy was rude and a bully and was very very sassy. So... we killed her.

A year passes with no more floating stuff, yet everybody is beginning to whisper. We don't know what they are whispering about. But they also are starting to walk away from us.

Three weeks pass that's when the whole school goes crazy. We look at our phones on tiktok and facebook and we see something dreadful... We see Amy is with Ashley in the graveyard. Emma screamed in shock. I was silent as we see the phone light up. We look at the light, we went on facebook because the light was a school. Mrs. B winked at us but all we could do is smile with shivers down our spine. After school Mrs. B walked up to us. We tried to jam our key into my car. I dropped my key and all I could do was stand still. Mrs. B invited us to her house for a big and good plan, it was better than our plan. We wanted to say no thanks but we knew if we said no to her we might get told on. Emma stayed silent. We only are 17 Mrs. B is 31. She's older than ok. We didn't know what could happen so we said yes out of will. The next day Mrs. B invited us back to her house to put our plan in action. We go push a kid who it mean to Mrs. B off a cliff once we invited him to pikes peak for a hike. We then go back to school and Mrs. B invites us to a carnival. It has big blossom trees, nice Japan snacks, cute anime skirts, and cosplays.

After we leave Mrs. B invites us to her house its big, long and white with BEAUTIFULLY stuff i'm a bit jealous to be honest. Our house is big long black and has some diamonds on the windows. We knew it was halloween so our plan was to capture kids and bring them to Mrs. B's house. Once Halloween came we would snatch 39 kids and Mrs. B has them in her basement and attic. We closed our car door after we drove 12 hours to a poker match the song Poker Face was playing, Poker Face is Emma's favorite song but i prefer Bad Romance. The next day Emma went home i began to plant my blossom trees when we left. Few weeks later my blossom trees grow.

It was my niece's birthday, she came over. We played minecraft, mario kart, roblox we baked pizza, cookies, cake, we watched netflix creeped out, youtube darman, hulu my hero academia and we watched the nightmare before christmas. We went to the store and got her a Halloween costume. I'm Katana. She's Mileena from Mortal Kombat.

Then my besties Aphton, Marley, Allison came over once my niece nayla left. We screamed the song Truth Hurts, Bad Romance, Poker Face, This is Halloween. Marley and Aphton left. Me and Allison screamed the song Baby my phone, Break it off and we can't forget BABY IN THE KITCHEN. We then go downstairs because my ring doorbell goes off. We open the door it's my five packages one package had my japan snacks in it the second one had two blankets in it the third one had make up The fourth one had spa supplies in it, the fifth had decorations in it but there was a mystery one. We looked inside it was...A PUPPY! But it didn't look like one, it looked like a wolf. Four years later it grew it was a wolf. My parents went on a date. I was home alone with my two older brothers Blake and Jake. We ordered pizza for dinner. Two days later we started getting worried so we dialed 911. But they didn't Answer. My wolf named rocky sat on the couch while me and my brothers went upstairs to go to our gaming room. We played minecraft, roblox, fortnite, Sims then my phone rang it was an unknown number. But i still answered to be honest i was scared but it was the police to tell us our parents got arrested we were in big great schock. We ran downstairs to see a clown smiling at me and my brothers we hit the clown with a lamp then we got in the car and drove away to figure out our parents were at home we got tricked to get teennapped. We were surprised we fell for the trick. we saw a guard doing a 360 with his head. I threw my water bottle at him which was so so so funny. Then he chased me for 12 minutes. After my brothers distracted the guards, we see...amy as a guard.

``HOW ARE U BACK!?" Trinity said.

My brother threw a lamp at Amy but hit me instead. Five seconds later, my brother had thrown me into the car without a seatbelt! He got smacked with my sandel when I woke up. I have sandals everywhere. I keep sandals in the car, house, backpack, even in my purse but it's for a reason.

THE HAUNTED DOLL

very scary).

" Mom, we have to go to school NOW," I yelled to my mom.

" I'm coming, I'm coming," as she ran down the stairs. "Sweetie, you're wearing your gold dress and it matches your blonde hair and you smell really good," said my mom.

"I get it mom ,but it's the first day of school," I said with excitement.

" Ok, then start getting in the car then".my mom said.

I ran outside my clean blue house. But before I got in the car I saw something. It was a creepy doll. I went to look at it. The doll had a white shirt with red stuff splattered on it, with blue boots on. I went to pick the doll up and it gave me the shivers. I ran into the house up the stairs. My mom said something to me but I didn't hear. I put the doll in my room. Then my mom called me downstairs.

She said, " come on if you want to go to school"

I said " ok ". I got a biscuit and ran upstairs to get the doll. I put the doll in my teal and pink backpack. I ran back downstairs and ran out the door to the car. Then I asked, "Can I sit in the front, mom?"

" Go ahead, Emma". While I was on the way to school I was listening to music called " Happy " by Pharrell Williams. I was vibing to it until we pulled up to my school. I know I was happy and all but now I'm a little nervous. What If I don't make friends, or I get bullied. I yelled, "I don't want to go to school!." you're going to school Emma ." mom said.

The house is not far from the school so I jumped out of the car and ran home. But something was strange, The house was dirty which is not how we left it. Pillows were ripped and fluff was everywhere, couches were ripped, doors were broken, all the food was on the floor and it looked like someone took a bite out of it. Then I saw the craziest thing the doll was sitting right on the ripped blue pillow with a smile on her face. I thought it was weird because the doll was in my backpack to go to school with me. Then I heard my mom's car screech in the drive wat

I went to tell her but she said " GET IN THE CAR RIGHT NOW OR ELSE," angrily said " NO " and ran inside.

My mom said " I'm not about to do this right now" and left. I was irritated with my mom. Like who does that leave a kid home alone? I picked the doll up and ran upstairs. I started crying and crying, till I heard a knock on the doll. I was too short to look so I opened the door a little but no one was there but a note.

I took it inside and read it had three words which were " I SEE YOU," I thought it was at the wrong house till it had my name and address on it. I started freaking out and screamed very loudly.

After having a big meltdown I started to chill out and find out who sent it. I looked at the name and it said "you'll find out soon", I was a little worried.

Then my dad called even though he's deployed he said " don't open the envelope," then he hung up, but he sounded pretty wired like he was in danger.

Then I called my mom and told her EVERYTHING! She said " throw the doll away and lock both the locks on the door and close your door and try to move your dresser in front of it. I'll be home in 5 min," she said demandingly.

I did everything she told me to and then I ran under my bed. Then I started hearing noises downstairs and I started crying. But the noise kept getting louder and louder .I tried to stop crying so the person would not know where I was .Then they creaked open , I was very surprised because the dresser was very strong . As the door creaked open there was a shadow but the shadow looked weird because I was shaped like a doll. Then the door opened all the way you won't believe who it was, it was the DOLL.

Then the doll said " i'm coming for you emma", it said in a scary voice

Then i said " no your not ," i said aggressively

I hurried up and opened the window and jumped out. I started running to the front of the house to get my bike and then I hopped on and rode it as fast as I could. I looked back and saw the doll but it was not going my way. It was taking the long way; she probably knew I was going to my mom's job so that's where she went but I wasn't. I knew the doll was going to go there so i turned around back to the house.

When I got home I ran to my room, got an empty backpack and put some snacks in there and some things to keep me busy like books, games, my phone and the charger, and also the badge my dad left me before he got deployed .

I ran back outside and got on my bike and rode off . But when i was riding my bike to my moms job hedd to my moms job i notice there was a lot of people that needed money because they did not have egohoh so i went of to the foist one i saw and was about to give them a snack but before i could i heard a car it was the doll and my mom. I was confused and my mom looked hypnotised .

And the doll was saying " IF YOU WANT YOUR MOTHER BACK COME FOUND ME TOMORROW " in a loud and scary voice. Then they drove off.

I was very confused because I thought the doll was normal and that I would not start hurting my family.I was very worried but I tried not to cry because I would get over this and it would get better soon. I started riding around to try to find somewhere to stay for the night. Then I saw the perfect spot, an old cabin.

Put my bike down and went to the old brown cabin. It had a lot of dust and webs. I went to find a room to stay in and I found the perfect one. It was not too dirty. I put my stuff in the room and explored the house. It had 3 rooms, a small kitchen, and a small bathroom. I looked outside and it was getting dark so I headed to the room. I tried to get all the dust out of the bed. I layed down and started falling asleep.

Then I woke up in the afternoon but something was weird. I heard noise coming from the kitchen. I got up to see what it was and it was my mom but something was wrong SHE WAS DEAD with blood everywhere. I started to cry but that's when I saw it, it was the doll and it had a knife in it hand and it was smiling.

Then I said " You'll pay for this ". I started running after the doll but the doll was running after me and so i got scared you know why IT HAD A KNIFE IN ITS HAND.

Next thing I know we were running outside. We ran pretty far but then the doll kept getting slower and slower. Then the doll stopped and I stopped and I said " Why would you kill my mom " I said while crying.

Then the doll said " your mom owed me and soon she won't be the only one dead " the doll said in a creepy voice.

I said " i did nothing to you so leave me alone " as i started rung

Then the doll said " NEVER! " the doll said as she started running after me.

As we continued running I saw a guy and I screamed to him " HELP ME! ".

But he started running after me to as he shaped shift to a doll and I started screaming "HELP!".

But no one heard me. We kept running and running until I could not take it any more so I stopped and said " just kill me already ".

Then they said " take that back so we can kill you, it won't be fun if you want to be killed ", they said in a mad way. Then they said " mah " and charged at me with a knife and killed

THE REALLY NON-HAPPY EVER AFTER.

The Clown By Hailey Tamba

King Elementary, 5th grade

I woke up and I groaned". It was my second week in Colorado springs and my mom and dad's first day of work they are working in a carnival and i was not excited. Why because carnivals of clowns and everybody knows that clowns are creepy it was time to go. We were twelve minutes away i was hoping that this is just a dream i tried and i tried but nothing and that is when we arrived. It was a ghost town it was closed down until today i could just hear a clown laughing and laughing. My parents said to go get some popcorn for a snack they gave me 20 dollars.

As I got popcorn I saw blood on the ground. It was not dry. I looked behind me to check if there was someone there and it was a CLOWN!!! I was screeching off the top of my lungs me and my sister run back to are parents. I was finally with my parents i know there was a killer clown hear but my sister fell down i ran there as fast as i could go. I got my sister she got a little scratch mark but i am glad that my sister is fine.

The owner said oops sorry i didn't tell you about the clown that was hear in 1879. A long time ago there was a carnival like this one it was in 1879 it was the first ever clown in history. Everyday kids would come to see the clown but some how the clown went crazy he started to murder kids and adults. He died in 1891 because he was so crazy he murdered his self. I guess his sprit is hear and every time he walks he leaves a trail of blood from the people he killed. Mom dad are you really going to take a job that has a killer clown no i am sorry sir but we are not going to take the job

I tried to go to bed but i saw a shadow through the door crack their was a voice it said Leave Leave like ten times. My family and me heard a really big bang the door was broken. My dad said we should go "How can we leave their is a killer clown at the door," I replied. We will go from the window are you crazy. It is the best option mom said okay.

I walked as carefully as I could. The clown was right behind me and my family. He had the biggest chainsaw ever i was alive until then blood splattered ever were. Me and my family were murdered!!!! The clown Cackled and he yelled i win yes. The news got out to the city carnival was closed down for good people still say that the clown is still around to kill people. It was just all a really bad nightmare or was it.

The Abandoned Hospital

By Madalyn Christensen, King Elementary , 5th grade

My friends, my parents, and I were driving home late at night and my friends and I were sleeping in the back of the car while my parents were talking in the front of the car. All of the sudden, something runs in front of our snow white Acadia car. After we heard the crash of the car we black out due to a hit on the head. A few hours later we woke up to the sound of police sirens surrounding our car. A few days later my friends and I were leaving the hospital and being transferred to an orphanage. After what seemed a few weeks of being there, there was no hope of being adopted without being seperated. That's when I had a great idea of escaping with my friends to start our own lives. That night we came up with a plan to leave the next night. That next night we sprung our plan into action and by 12:00 am we were out of the orphanage and into the woods. I could hear leaves crunching. My feet were numb , and my eyes were slowly closing. There weretrees everywhere. Darkness surrounded my friends and I. We were looking for somewhere to sleep. "Look, I think I see a building!" Shouted Cassidy. My eyes popped right open. "REALLY!" I shouted. We took a closer look at it. It was a hospital, an abandoned hospital. "It looks kinda creepy", Brooklynn whispered. "Come on, it can't be that bad," Daniel replied. "ARE WE SERIOUSLY GOING IN THERE" I shouted. I was not happy about it. We all entered the hospital very quietly, we found a room with 4 hospital beds in it. None of us could fall asleep. It was 3am and that's when it started to get weird, we started hearing footsteps. "Maybe this wasn't a good idea". Cassidy cried. "Calm down, maybe it's just the wind." I added. "Ok we can head out." Mumbled Daniel in frustration. We were heading out, when all of this sudden Brooklynn shouted, "THE FOOTSTEPS ARE GETTING LOUDER!" "Ok everyone calm down if we stay together we will be ok." I explained. As Soon as I was done explaining that we should stay together Daniel darted out the door "DANIEL!" Brooklynn yelled. "We have to find him", we all agreed. We all went looking for him. "DANIEL.....DANIEL..." we called over and over and over again , but we did not find him. After one hour of searching we found him , he looked like he had just seen a ghost! The rest of my friends and I gather around Daniel. We are trying to communicate with him and calm him down but no words seem to be coming out of his mouth. My friends and I decided to take him back to the room to let him get some rest. As soon as we get to the room, Daniel snaps out of his trance almost instantly. Daniel shouted with fear " NO, STOP WE NEED TO GET OUT OF HERE IT'S DANGEROUS." As soon as he said this all of the doors in the hospital shut with a loud echo locking us inside the hospital. Then we heard footsteps again, but this time it wasn't alone. Hearing this causes my friends and I to whimper out of fear wondering if we are ever going to get out of this. All of the sudden one of the doors fling open and before us we see two tall shadows standing in the doorway. As we stand there in disbelief the shadows come closer into the light revealing their true identities. It was two nurses who almost looked exactly the same, almost looking like twin sisters, but something wasn't right, they were dead. Cassidy let out a terrifying scream causing Brooklynn to join in as all four of us try to run away from the crazy nurses. Once we started to run away the nurses started to follow while hiding something behind their backs. It was tall , shiny, and very pointy. They pulled it out from behind their backs and continued to chase after us. "What do they want!?" Cassidy shouted. "I Don't know" I cried. Right before our eyes Daniel had disappeared without a trace. There was no sign of him or the nurses went. The rest of us stopped to catch our breaths and figure out what to do. As soon as we thought of a plan Cassidy had vanished and it was only Brooklynn and I left. Brooklyn and I started to panic and wonder, "who was next?" We ran to find the others, but there was no sign of them anywhere. Without a trace Brooklynn also disappears causing me to panic. I start to run around the building calling their names on the verge of tears. "BROOKLYNN,... CASSIDY,... DANIEL, WHERE ARE YOU GUYS?!" I shout. I am crying at this point wondering if I am going to see them ever again. Out of nowhere the nurses appear with a twisted grin on their faces as they start to corner me. Once they get close to me I wake up screaming. "IT WAS JUST A DREAM?!" All of my friends surround me and give me a concerned look asking me if I was okay. "Are you okay Maddy, why were you screaming?" asked Cassidy. I replied "I must have had a bad dream, I'm glad it's over with and not real." My parents yell "Kids breakfast is ready!" I jump out of bed and run into my parents arms now knowing the nightmare is over.

The Haunted Bassment

By-Katelynn Winters

Mckenzie Hutchins and her best friend, Katelynn Winters, both went to school at Sunrise elementary. Today was another ordinary day. Mckenzie, or Kenzie for short, ate breakfast then walked to school.

"Kenzie!" her mom cried. "Don't forget your lunch!" Kenzie stopped. She ran back to the front of the porch. "Sorry mom. Just excited for school!" she said. "I understand!" Kenzie's mom chuckled. "Now get to school or you'll be late!"

On the way to school, Kenzie skipped all the way to Maple street where Katelynn, or Kate for short, lived. "Kate!" Kenzie cried. Kate came running down her front steps. "Hi Kenzie! We have to go soon." Kenzie and Kate walked the rest of the way to school.

When they got there, the bell had just rang. Kenzie and Katelynn ran to their classroom. "...So I want you to turn in your spelling homework to the.... Oh! Hi Kenzie and Kate!"

Kenzie and Kate walked into class and sat down at their seats. Levi, who sat with them, started bugging them. "Where were you guys? What took you so long? Why were you guys late?" Levi loved asking questions. "Well, we were walking to school and I forgot my lunch and was a little late picking up Kate. So there." Kenzie answered. "Wow!" said Kate. "You are good at answering questions!"

The rest of the day was a normal day. Kenzie and Kate's backpacks were loaded with homework. Levi offered to help carry their bags since he lived across the street from Kate. When the bell rang, the three friends stepped outside when all of a sudden, it started sprinkling.

"Oh no!" cried Kate. "We can't walk through this!" "The weather was supposed to be nice today. I never brought a rain poncho!" cried Kenzie. "We should put our bags over our heads!" said Levi. "But you have our bags!" said Kate. "Oh. Right."

"Let's just run through the rain." said Kenzie. Both Levi and Kate shook their heads. But they had no other choice.

On the way home, Levi tripped into a big puddle of water. "I'm soaked!" he cried. Levi's shirt was dripping down to the ground. Kenzie and Kate handed Levi their jackets. "How about we go to my house since it's closer. Levi can get cleaned up there." said Kenzie. And before you know it, the children were walking to Kenzie's house.

The friends were standing at the front door. They couldn't tell if it was Kenzie's house because the letters were being fixed. "Let's go inside." said Kenzie as she opened the door. "Is your mom home?" Kate asked. "I don't think so." Kenzie replied. "She said that she might have a meeting this evening."

"I should be headed to the bathroom." Levi pointed out. Then, he ran away. "While he's in there, let's pull out our homework." Kate said as they walked to the kitchen. As they entered the kitchen, the sound of a blood curdling scream shook their bodies like an earthquake was commencing.

Kate and Kenzie ran to the bathroom where Levi was as his body trembled. "What's going on?" said Kenzie, shaking. "Tha... That th... thing." Levi said. A small black cat quickly walked across the bathtub. It would stop and let out a high pitched meow. Kenzie picked it up. "Shh." she said calmly, petting the cat gently. "Uhh... Kenzie. You don't have a black cat." Kenzie looked up. "Your right." she said. "Well, we must be in the wrong house." Levi said.

Kenzie and Kate peeked out the window. "Can we leave?" asked Levi. "Not yet." Kate said. "It's pouring harder now." Levi took a peek. "Ya. But we will be fine." he said. "Let's just get our work done." "Ok." said Levi as he walked toward the front door where they lay their bags. "Wait!" cried Kenzie. "What?" But before you know it, Levi was tumbling down the stairs.

Kate and Kenzie stood in shock as Levi tumbled down the stairs. "Help!" cried Levi. Soon, Kate and Kenzie were rushing down the stairs to catch up. The black cat, or what Kenzie called Scratch, followed the two down the stairs.

The stairs were like an unwinding path with no end. Levi kept on going and going until finally he hit the bottom. Kate, Kenzie, and Scratch caught up with Levi at the bottom. "Are you ok Levi?" Kenzie asked with hardly any breath left. "I'm fine." said Levi. Kate stopped the conversation. "L...Look." she said.

"It's just a vacuum cleaner." said Levi. "Or is it?" called a strange voice. "Who said that?" Kenzie said, shaking up. "Me!" A small object waddled toward them.

"Your a Porcupine?" cried Kenzie. "I am too. My name is Earl J. Caterson. But you can call me Earl." he said. "So, you live here?" asked Kenzie. "Well ya. Why would I be hanging out down here if I don't live here?" Earl asked. Kenzie started to back up. "Maybe we should leave." she said. "Or maybe not."

Kate, Kenzie, and Levi all backed away from Earl. Then, they started to run up the stairs. "Stop!" cried Earl. His eyes turned red. He used some kind of mind power to create a large gate. Scratch yowled. "Come on!" said Kenzie. Kenzie thought they wouldn't make it.

Earl used his powers to flee Levi and Kate into the air. "Kenzie! Run!" they cried. Kenzie ran for her life through the gate.

"I've created an invisible gate!" Earl cried. "Rats!"

Kenzie ran through the hall and out the door. "Wait!" Kenzie cried. She ran back into the room.

"What is this place Earl?" yelled Kenzie. "An abandoned house." Earl began.

"I used to live in this house with Mr. and Mrs. Callers. They were so nice. But one day, they disappeared. So I have waited for the day for someone to come and care for me like they did."

"Well, Why didn't you just tell us? We can care for you." said Kenzie. "W...what?" said Levi. "He needs it!" said Kate. "As long as you promise not to use your powers on us." said Kenzie. Earl nodded his head. "Yes!" he said. "Please. Stay here!" Kenzie looked out the window. "But we have homes." she said. "Well, why not take me with you?" suggested Earl.

"Yes!" said Kenzie. "We can take you with!" So Kenzie gently scooped up Earl. Earl started to weep a little. "Thank you." he said. "I've waited so long!"

The rain poured down harder than before. "I'm worried we won't make it home." said Levi. He was worried and shook up. Levi had a big fear of anything old. He sat on the couch and hoped no spiders crawled out of the cushions.

All of a sudden, the friends heard a VROOM. "It's coming from the basement!" Earl pointed out. "Not again!" said Kate.

The three friends and their new friend walked down the steps slowly. "Hello." said a voice. The voice got louder. The noise got louder. Then popped out an evil Vacuum cleaner.

The friends screamed. Except for Earl. "Vroom," he said. "So nice to see you again." "Ok. Ok. I'll leave!" and off went the vacuum.

"What was that?" asked Kate. "Old Vacuum cleaner. He was cursed." Earl said. The friends walked among the basement. There were rooms covered in cobwebs and broken furniture. "This is sad." said Levi. "Mr. And Mrs. Caller have a lot of wasted furniture."

All of a sudden, there was a large ringing sound. "Is that an evil phone?" asked Levi. "Just a phone." said Earl. "Who is it?"

Kate picked up the phone. "Hello?" And before you know it, Kate was in a long conversation with this person. "Who is it?" asked Kenzie. Kate looked at her. "For you." said Kate.

Kenzie took the phone away from Kate. "Mom?" she said, surprised. "Where are you?" asked Kenzie's mom. "At Kate's house." she said. "Were coming home now."

"Were leaving?" asked Earl. "Yes. This is the plan," Kenzie forward them all into a huddle. "I will drop Levi off first. Then Kate and then I'll take Earl home with me."

"I sure will miss this place." said Levi. "Even though it's scary, it's cool."

The four friends took off out the door dressed in old blankets Earl gave them. First they walked to Levi's house.

"Goodbye guys! See you tomorrow!" Levi waved to them as they walked off his porch. "Don't we have a test tomorrow?" Kate asked. "Uhh..." Levi said, confused. "Whatever." said Kate as she shook her hand away from Levi.

They all walked to Kate's house and dropped her off next. Kenzie and Earl said goodbye and left.

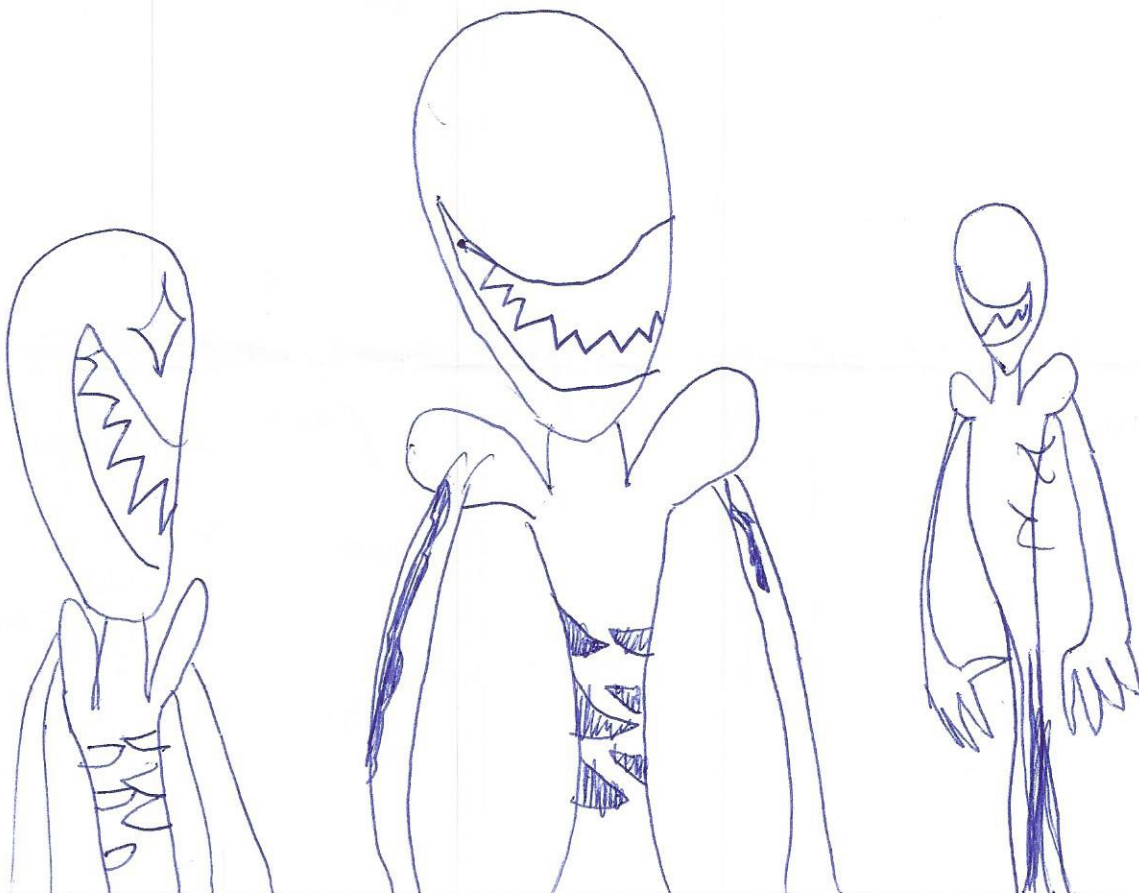

Kenzie made it to her house. Kenzie's mother hugged her. "Who's this?" she asked. "My friend."

Nowadays, Kenzie goes to school with her friends and comes home to Earl. All in all, this is a wrap.

THE MAN WITH NO FACE

Once my friend and I went out for a walk on Halloween at 3:00 am. I did not want to go, but my friend talked me into it. Then I saw this one house. I was hearing sounds from it. It looked about 150 years old. Since he made me go on this walk I told him to ring the doorbell. DING DONG! Then the door opened by itself. We walked in and nothing was there just a rat and a couch. Then we saw blood coming from under the couch. A hand came from under the couch and grabbed the rat and pulled it under. Then we heard it chewing the rat. We tried to run away then it grabbed us. It pulled us back into the house then we saw it. It had gray skin, no eyes, ears, nose, or hair. Just a mouth filled with sharp teeth. It dropped us. So we ran as fast as we can. Well I ran my friend was standing there looking at the thing. Then he passed out. I could not save him. Then the thing broke his arm. Then he looked at me and started to run towards me. I slammed the door and his head busted through it. My friend was still lying on the ground. I punched it in the face but I could not hurt it. So I ran off. I looked back and the house was gone. Three weeks later my friend was found. He was acting a little strange. The next day he was arrested for murdering a teenager. Five years later I still have nightmares.

Scary Story

By Lizi Bordelon

5th grade and Talbott STEAM Innovation School

One night, I was at home while my mom and stepdad were at a concert, my grandma was watching me. We were all on the couch watching T.V. when I heard something outside. My grandma told me not to worry so we went on and watched the movie. Suddenly I heard it again. We all looked outside but we saw nothing. I said, "We are all probably just hearing something, I mean it is Halloween tomorrow. Or it is a spooky ghost," We all started laughing and my brother, Matt, said, "Really Lizi, no ghosts are here!" Suddenly we all saw something run like a flash in front of my little brother. Bradley said, "I saw something eat all of my popcorn!" I thought it was our dogs but the dogs were all asleep. I saw something behind my brothers and I yelled, "RUN!" Suddenly I felt something touch my shoulder. And in the blink of an eye my brothers and grandma were gone.

All I could hear was yelling inside the walls, "Help us Lizi." I asked them who they were and responded, "We are your family." I looked and looked but I couldn't find them or a way out of the walls. I saw a pair of glowing red dots in the bathroom. I slowly walked into the room to find my dog sitting on the floor and chained to the wall, she couldn't move. I looked for the key to the lock but all I could find was a pencil and a piece of paper. The pencil started to write something on the paper. It read, "We are going to get you next.. Have fun." I ran outside, looked around and only saw my house. There were no cars, no people, not even my neighbors houses, no houses at all. I said to myself I need to find someone to help me. I went back into the house looking for my grandma's phone. I was more scared than ever before.

Let me tell you the story of "The Camping Trip Gone Wrong" an old man said, `` So, one day five friends wanted to go camping. They asked their parents and they said "yes" so the friends got together and packed. Ben brought the food, Jack brought them the tent and Kelly brought blankets and pillows. "Are you guys ready to go camping?" Jack said. The friends said "yes" and they found a nearby forest.

They went into the forest and they found a cabin. It was dark so they spent the night there. "What if the owner comes back?" Ben whispered. "This place looks abandoned, will stay here for the night then will find the campsite in the morning" Alex told Ben. The Next morning they packed up their stuff then went to find the campsite.

"I found it!" Jack yelled. The friends ran to Jack to set up their stuff. After they set up their stuff they went to go find the lake to fish for some food. They caught some fish and then went back to camp kelly stude and went to the other side of the lake. "Where's kelly." Mark asked, "She went to look at the lake," Jack said. "But she has been gone for a long time," Alex said. "I'll go look for her," Mark said. Mark went to the lake and found Kelly's hat.

He was confused because she wears it everyday. Mark went to tell the others and they went to look for kelly. Jack looked across the lake, Ben went into the forest, Alex stood in at the camp if Kelly came back, and Mark went to the abandoned cabin. They boys heard a loud scream "what was that!" They boys said. "I think that was mark I'll go look for him" Ben said. "NO don't every time some gose alone they go missing, will go together," Alex explained to Ben.

They went to look for Mark. The forest was dark and quiet. They found Mark's watch in the middle of the old cabin. They tried to look then they went back to the campsite because it was too dark. They went to bed and the next morning they looked for Mark but they could not find him.

They have 4 day till they have to leave to go back to school. Ben was wandering in the woods trying to find Mark but had no luck. Ben saw a rope so he pulled it. Ben saw a fury beast so he yelled. "HELP ME" Ben yelled, Jack and Alex heard him and went to find him. They found him in a net. Ben told them "run, hide , do whatever you can to escape the best."But we can't leave you" Jack said. "Just go!" Ban said again. Jack and Alex ran the beast was fury, His claws were as sharp as knives, his eyes were red and he was very mad mad.

Jack and Alex were hiding behind a big tree.

They went to the old cabin, they went to the back and there was a lever. They flicked the lever and a door opened up and went down and they saw their friends on the ground. They tried to open the cage but it would not open. The beast was coming and they had to get out of the forest. They ran to the campsite and took their stuff and left. They never saw their friends again.

"And that's the story of "The Camping Trip Gone Wrong." said the old man." "Make sure you are safe on a camping trip or you might end up like Mark, Ben, and Kelly" Said The old man. "I know the story because I was there the whole time," said Jack.
