

The doll

Once there was a little girl. This little girl had a doll that she loved very much. Her dolls name was akira. Akira had blond curly hair and a beautiful white dress. One normal day the little girl was playing with Akira at a park. But then akira randomly started talking she said "im coming!" The little girl didnt think about it. When she got home she got home she put akira in her doll pjs. She went to bed. But then at 3AM the doll started saying "Good bye". When it was the morning the mother went in her room to wake her up. But she wasn't there. All she saw was the doll. She went to go put her doll back then go look for her daughter. But then she heard the doll say "bye bye" then the mom was GONE. the next day the police went looking but when they entered there house they saw the doll. When they picked it up all the police where gone.

There was once five friends. All the friends were in the same age group 15-17. So they were all in high school well one day there was a random blackout the announcements told everyone to hide. So everyone hid in the corner. After school ended they all agreed to stay the night at their friends house. At the middle of the night one of the friends went missing. They all freaked out and called 911 but the police couldn't find the friend. The friends all forgot that he went missing and carried on with their day. But then night by night 4 friends went missing. The friend went to go tell her parents. But then the parents weren't there. The girl freaked out and called 911 again. When the police got there the girl was wasn't there. So the police went in her room. They checked her closet but then the police disappeared. Legend says to this day if you ever enter the friends house you will never be seen again.

Kya the ghost girl

There is five friends who moved to a new old house filled with old fashioned toys and a music box and with a picture of a girl named kya. The friends names were Jake, kely, eric, aaron, and sophie they went into the basement and found kya's dictionary. The dictionary said, "I shall return from the dead to get the people who destroyed my home 10 years ago," The friends laughed hard and even harder. Then eric, "what if it is not a joke what if it is real," said eric. then sophie said, "you really think it is real HeY kya the ghost girl come and get me if you are so tough," Don't do that I heard it is true she will come after you," aaron said. Then kely said forget it lets go to bed and forget about all of this. The next day sophie was not in her bed and james screamed, "OH MY GOD WERE IS SOPHIE," they went to the bathroom to find sophie on the floor not breathing, and then kya appeared out of nowhere and well made sure they weren't alive and they were never seen again. THE END.

Scary story

My scary story Boo.

Once upon a time I was walking home from school and suddenly I felt something touch me on the back and I was scared so I turned around and saw nothing and I ran home so I could hide under my bed and my mom called me out for dinner and I went out and thought that I should eat and so I did and I went to bed and I got scared and then I fell asleep and then I heard a sound and got scared so I went to go see what it was and I saw it a tall slender man with no face and he had long arms and he scared me so I ran then he grabbed me with his long arm and told me he would never ever take me home so i screamed so my dad came to see what happened until he saw nothing there so I thought our house was haunted. The next day I escaped so I ran and I ran until I lost him and he never saw me again. I saw my dad in a red

Ford F350 dually and I told the whole story but he did not believe me but he took me home and my mom said she was really scared but she made sure that i was safe at all times and then she said to not wake up at 3:00 in the morning.

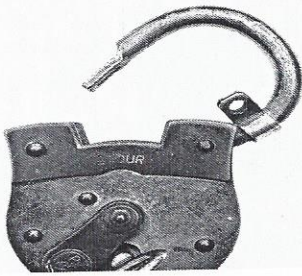

The end by Bentley Allen.

This is the story of the woods

Once upon a time there was a little girl who was walking in the woods. She was taking the rote she goes every day, but this time she went farther. Soon it was dark and she got lost! There was a little light coming towards her she ran and ran but then she stopped. She started walking back and the light got brighter and the little girl said, "Who are you?" and the lady said, "I can see you are lost and I will let you sleep at my house. When the little girl got to the house she could see the old lady's face. She was a witch!!

The little girl tried to escape but it was too late the witch brought her to the dongen! Then the witch said, "You will stay here for all time!". The little girl was scared, but she did not give up! She got a rock and started to break the locks.

Soon she fell asleep. Then it was morning and she woke up to footsteps and it was the witch. The witch opened a tiny door and slid food through it. It was a piece of toast with two hard boiled Eggs.

The witch then went up stairs and wants she left the little girl ran and ate it.

After she got the same rock and ten days of hard work paid off. The little girl planned to go at midnight, but when she went out there were lasers everywhere! She went back in the room and pretended she saw nothing.

The next few days she wrote notes on the wall with the rock and soon she could disable the lasers. So she went upstairs and there were cameras all over the place! Then the little heard footsteps and it was the witch. She ran into the dongen and pretended she was asleep. Wants the witch left, the little girl started to cry and she said, "I will never get out of this place!". Soon she fell asleep and the witch came down and set a note down that said, "You will be here forever!!!!". Wants the little girl read the note she screamed at the top of her lungs! So the next few days she put tallies on the wall for the days, but soon she was tired of the dark so she went during the day.

So wants she got upstairs, she went behind the witch and kicked her in the back of the head and ran out. The little girl ran as fast as she could but the witch caught up. Thankfully she got to her house and slammed the door in the witches face! Later that night just to make sure she was safe she put locks and pieces of wood on the doors and windows. But little did she know that was no match for witchcraft. Just before she went to bed she heard a weird/scary laugh luckily she had a hammer. Wants she got down stairs she saw the witch, so she quietly went behind the witch and hit her. After she called the cops and she was in jail. The little girl was relieved but she was still scared. Since that day if she hears any type of laugh she will scream!!! Mwahahahahahaha! By Emma Ladino

Once upon a terrifying time. When I was out camping. My family and I were on a walk at 3am. Then we went off trail. We went back but couldn't find the correct trail. Then we split up not thinking that we would get lost. So we went to find the trail. If we found the trail we would go back and meet up. But we all got lost from each other then I saw something move in the trees. It looked like a slime monster that was cut on the face, bloody, and with three eyes.

It waved at me so I ran and the ghost was in front of me somehow. The ghost grabbed my arm but I got its arm off when it touched my arm. I had goo on my arm. It was disgusting. But I wasn't worried about the goo until it started to open my arm like a portal shape. Then I saw an arm pop out. It grabbed me and pulled me in the portal.

But I popped up at where the ghost was then I realized the ghost grabbed me. So I ran and wiped all the goo off this time and I ran for a long time. Because I could still see the ghost behind me when I turned around. When I got tired I sat down and the ghost got closer and closer so I ran some more. Then I lost him but I was so far from camp I fell on the ground because of how cold it was. Then I heard my parents voices so I woke up then I saw the ghost staring at me then the ghost grabbed and dragged me in the water and he didn't let me even see my family. I was never seen again from human eyes; the only one that saw me was the ghost.

In the late 1950's on Halloween, a girl named Dana Matherous went to an abandoned haunted house. She thought of herself as dauntless and smart. When she got there the door was opened and there was a note taped on it. Which said " beware to all who dare to enter When she walked through the creepy door, there were blood prints everywhere. As she walked around the basement she found perished dogs in the drawer, which was on the floor, rusting, behind the ripped up couch.

As she was walking around the kitchen she saw an oven. She cautiously walked toward it because who knew? Maybe a surge of water would pour on her. When she opened the oven hatch, out came a mysterious creature, which was covered in dog blood, jumped out and chased Dana. When she came out the mysterious creature was gone, but when her head turned from looking at the debris house, a surge of red colored water splashed on her. But... she was not dauntless and thought it was the dog blood and ran out of the abandoned haunted house screaming.

My spooky story starts in my Jedi school. I started my day as normal as it can be. When I was heading to my first-period class I heard a surprise lockdown was happening because a ghost was seen in the locker room, first-period room, and the cafeteria.

I was freaked out because where I was standing was cold as ice in an ice box. As I was standing soundlessly I heard a ghost moan and footsteps.

It scared me so bad I got out my red, spooky Jedi lightsaber. As soon as the ghost got to me, I realized it was my ghost friend Natile from my old, white, spooky house. It was a spooky and awesome day in school.

On the 6th day of the 6th week of the 6th month I got out of my car. The night was as sketchy as can be. I looked around dubiously so I could see if no one could see me. I had to sneakily creep around the house. The neighborhood is full of people so I hid in a big bush.

Just to make sure there was no one in the house that could see me I placed some leaves on myself and pretended to be a bush. When I got the green light I hid behind the biggest bush I could find so that I could dress up as a murdering clown. I did not just buy my costume, I made it so that it would be more intricate. I got glowing teeth, claws, and eyes.

I have a chainsaw, so I took off the chain and made the noise play on speakers. So that the person thought it was real. The people walked out of the rigidity door then they got scared by a black cat. Then I jumped out of the bush. I scared the living daylights out of my victims with my chainsaw. They got the scare of their life.

One night I woke up from a really creepy sound and this is what started my creepy, scary night. I went downstairs and opened the back door because that is where the sound came from. When I checked outside the umbrella, pillow, and our tree had fallen into our pool!!! Then I heard the door slam so I ran up to the door and I saw that the door was locked! I did not know what to do except panic. I went to the back gate and saw that my Mom and Dad had left. I was home alone! I was so scared I kept panicking. It was pitch dark so I could barely see anything at all. Suddenly my dog started randomly barking.

Shortly after I stopped panicking I heard someone scream hysterically!!! I started crying because I thought someone had broken into our house. A couple minutes later the cops arrived. I think the neighbors called the cops. Then my mom and dad arrived and the criminal was taken to jail. His name was Jonny Williams. I hope nothing ever happens like that again.

I woke up to a dark morning and looked in the mirror, I saw I was a vampire, then saw my mom and dad vampires and we were all screaming. Then we dealt with it and had blood for breakfast but I did not eat it because it looked disgusting and not delicious. The house was haunted and was talking about it's shelf, I was jealous, angry, and mad at the house.

When we got in the car I started to notice it was way too dark so I thought it was night. I asked mom and dad what the weather was but they said the weather man is not up. At this time I knew it was night. When I got to school I asked everyone if they were vampires too. Everyone said they were vampires. I started to scream, scream, and scream some more. I fled out of class and kept running away from the other vampires. I kept running till I got home. I woke up the next morning and almost everything was back to normal.

One night I woke up and found out I was home alone. I saw a shadow fly by the window. Suddenly I heard the door slam and it locked me into my room. The lights started to flicker. Then the lights went out. That's when I saw the doll in my mirror and it jumped on my back. It whispered in my ear "Come play with me". I told it no and threw it off my back, stomped on it, and jumped out the window. I walked to the neighbor's house and I saw the doll stare and wave at me. I ran as fast as I could! When I got there I knocked and asked if I could call my parents. I hope this never happens again

One night I woke up at midnight and heard creepy noises outside my room on the downstairs floor. When I got up out of my bed I went to get my flashlight to see in the pitch black dark rooms. While I went to check out the noises they seemed to be getting louder and more far away. When I went down the stairs I noticed some mud marks on the floor. While my eyes were looking at the mud marks, something caught the corner of my eye. When I went to look I realized they were moving toward me, but before I ran away I took a quick look and saw bright red, moving, and flashing lights. I was so scared I ran away upstairs and turned the lights on! As soon as I did that it was gone! But when I looked at myself in the mirror on the door. I saw 3 blood marks on my face and arms. I ran to my room but was too scared to go to sleep.

One time it was late at night and we were all sleepy. There were two more days until halloween. We went to elitches and went home. I went to my room and my brother was there on his bed and we went to bed. I woke up to a scream and saw a black figure in the corner of the wall. My older brother rushed in with a bat and saw it too. My dad and mom rushed in there also. Mom had shage and my dad had a lighter and saw the black figure. Like 3 years later we moved out and never saw the black figure or the home again. Then we saw the black figure again.

One day at home my dad comes home from work. I wanted to scare him and see if he would scream. He always changes when he comes back home. I hide in the bathroom so when he walks down the hallway to eat I will scare him. Then I get ready to say BOO!!!!!! He said AHH!!!!!!!!!! Very loudly. He doesn't like embarrassing people around him especially his family when he scared me when he scream. Lastly, I got in trouble because my dad was embarrassed about screaming because men dont scream and then we had a happy time trick or treating when we came home I thought about scaring my dad AGAIN. I did the same steps my dad thought I was in my room. I say BOO!!!!!! And he screams AHHHH!!!!!! again.

The Story of the Halloween Monster

One day at a scary school it was Halloween. It was more fun than usual, so the kids would not be bored. There was two girls. They were best friends so they went together everywhere. They went trick-or-treating. The two girls went to this scary house but they weren't scared but Kali when they went in they heard screaming. Kali got scared but her friend got goosebumps. They went to the kitchen to get knives. The two besties saw a body hanging and it was cut up into pieces. It kind of looked like their other best friend. She must have been in here sense the news said she was missing. The killer was at the doorsteps waiting for them to go outside but the went up stars they locked themselves in the bathroom. Sunny was hurt but she acted like she wasn't. She was in pain. Sunny told Kali what happened. Kali looked through the cabinets but she didn't find anything, not even a madkit then she leaves her friend with the killer outside the door she finds the first madkit she heads back but she finds her gone and the door open she walks down stars to find Sunny. Sunny's body parts everywhere. Kali was crying she headed out the door she runed to the police officers. She said that her friends are dead but the police officers said she was crazy and so she didn't forget them but she is worried that the monster will come for her.

I walked up to the phone booth in the dark street.

Wait, Wait let's back up.

My friends and I were hanging out while my parents were on a trip. Amy said "let's go to that old doll shop! Maybe we could find something cool." We headed downtown to where the old doll shop had sat vacant for the last three years.

"Here we are," said Amy.

"This is creepy." I said

"Yeah well let's go in" I said

Hey look at this one! It's got black hair, blue eyes, blue shirt and black pants. Pretty creepy. It has a few marks on its face. Let's go Show Devon and Derek.

"What is that?" Devon said?

"It's a doll from that weird shop down the block" I said.

"What should we name him?" asked everyone.

"Bucky!" I answered.

"Okay that's a good name," Devon said.

"Let's go to sleep, it is getting late, we can play with the doll tomorrow, " I said.

Everyone agreed. The next morning I could not find my cell phone so I asked the guys

"Have you guys seen my phone?" I asked.

"I don't know," said Derek.

Feeling a little frustrated, I said

"Whatever, let's go eat some breakfast."

There was some nice eggs with some crunchy bacon sitting on the table.

"Where's Bucky?" asked Amy.

right here said Bucky. you can talk!! They were scared so they threw Bucky away. The next day there was a ring on their doorbell it was a little present box so they bring it in to see what it was. It was Bucky. you thought you could get rid of ~~bucky-me~~ raged

Bucky

Bucky. Bucky jumped on to Derek's back aah aah aah get off of me snap !!!!! Derek fell to the floor thump. me and Amy started running and screaming. call the police oh no you don't said Bucky. our phones mysteriously snapped in half. no one to help us and no one to call. Amy gets dragged Away by Bucky. it's just me and you Devon I said. ~~devon~~YouTube on trips and hits his head on the wall. I look in front of me and I look back at Devon but he's gone. I run to the fireplace and grab the poker. Let's play i yell. Bucky comes from around the corner. I stabbed Bucky in the chest with the poker. I run out of the house and try to make my way to the city. I walk up to a telephone booth and call my mother's number. but all I hear is buckys voice. lets play.

THE HAUNTED HOUSE FRIDAY 13th

By: Aaralynn Margraf

"Is the house really haunted?" asked Jaden.

Jaden and Brooklyn and heard rumors about a haunted house. Brooklyn's mom drove us to the house and Jaden knocked on the door. We waited for someone to answer the door but no one did. We didn't hear anything so we went into the house to investigate. We saw paintings, and thought we saw their eyes were moving ... we took a breath and we looked again only to find still paintings on the wall. We turned around and looked behind and saw that Willow was no longer with us. "Where did she go?" asked Jaden.

"I thought she was right here with us" stated Brooklyn.

We both decided to try and find Willow thinking that she must have walked off curious about what was down the hallway. We walked quietly and cautiously down the hallway. When we came upon an open door and decided to push the door open only to find Willow tied up with old rope in a chair. Jaden rushed to Willow and began to untie her, while he was untying her we heard the most terrifying sound that we had ever heard.

Ekkkkk ekkkkk ekkkk

Brooklyn being the curious one wanted to go upstairs and check out the sound but Willow and Jaden wanted to leave. Brooklyn told the both of them "go home if you want to". Willow looked at Jaden and told him "we can not leave her here by herself." We both decided to take off after her. As we climbed the stairs, chasing after Brooklyn the sound kept getting louder and louder as we got closer to the bedroom at the end of the hallway. Jaden pushed the door open and saw Brooklyn sitting in a rocking chair. "Brooklyn, what are you doing?" said Willow.

Brooklyn did not make a sound.

"Let's get out of here", said Willow.

Willow grabbed Brooklyn by the arm and dragged her down the hallway and down the stairs. We tried to call our parents' phones once we were back down stairs but there was no signal . So we went to the garage to find something to help us get out of the house and get home. When we got to the garage we saw that there was a car, Willow tried to start it and we were all getting excited that we were getting out of here but nope not a chance there was no key to start the car. Jaden said "let me see if I can hotwire it".

We waited nervously to see if he could get it going. Jaden was able to get the engine to turn over but that is when we realized the car had no fuel in it. Brooklyn said "hey! There was fuel outside of the garage."

Jaden ran to the garage opener to open the garage but it did not work. We tried to find stuff to break out the glass on the garage door but we could not find anything that would break the glass. We were locked in!

Willow said "Guys it's starting to get cold out here." Jaden and Brooklyn both agreed and they all went back inside to find blankets to keep themselves warm. Then Brooklyn, Jaden, and Willow went into the living room and there was a TV, with nothing better to do we decided to try to find the remote. Jaden found it. We plugged the TV in and found that it did not work either. Frustrated and tired, we fell asleep.

When Brooklyn woke up she asked "Willow and Jaden if they wanted to see if the attic window was open" . It was so we each climbed out and it was 3:00 in the morning. Then everyone tried to call their parents. There was a signal and Brooklyn's mom answered and Brooklyn said ``can you come pick us up quick please "she said ``where were you?" "ummm... I am with my friends in the haunted house. Willow got tied up in a chair please we are all scared." said Brooklyn.

Brooklyn's mom comes and gets her and her friends. On the way home Brooklyn and her friends tell Brooklyn's mom what happened. In the car on the way home everyone fell asleep and once they arrived at Brooklyn's house everyone got changed and went to sleep. The next morning we all woke up and could not believe what had happened the night before. We all sat around on the floor reliving the night and laughed at how scared we had been.
