

EXTRA HELP

The teacher will work out a regular extra help schedule with the principal (elementary) or curriculum associate (middle/high school) that will remain constant throughout the year or semester when appropriate. This procedure will be completed by the tenth day of classes.

Teachers are reminded to encourage students to come for remediation, enrichment, or consultation, as well as extra help.