Youth Suicide Warning Signs

Talk to a trusted adult or reach out to someone you are concerned about if you observe one or more of these warning signs, especially if the behavior is new, has increased or seems related to a painful event, loss or change:

- 1. Talking about or making plans for suicide
- 2. Expressing hopelessness about the future
- 3. Displaying severe/overwhelming emotional pain or distress
- 4. Showing worrisome behavioral cues or changes in behavior, such as:
  - Withdrawal from or changing in social connections/situations
  - Changes in sleep (increased or decreased)
  - Anger or hostility that seems out of character or out of context
  - Recent increased agitation or irritability

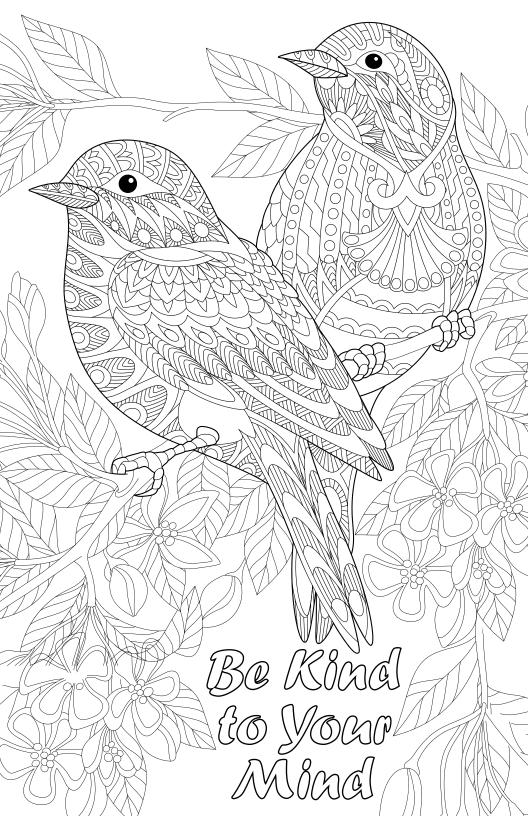

If you are concerned about someone, reach out and ask: "Are you thinking about suicide?"

Whatever you're going through, you're not alone. If you're in pain or concerned for someone else, call the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline 800.273.8255 (TALK) or text HOPE to 741-741. You can also visit suicideispreventable.org for more information.

Create Compete SAVe Lives

The Directing Change Program holds film and art contests for young people in California to learn about the topics of suicide prevention and mental health. By creating short films or art projects, you can learn about suicide prevention, mental health, social justice, and other health topics; share what you've learned with others; and communicate positive messages to peers and adults in your community that will inspire them to take action. Win cash prizes and make a difference! To learn how you can get started visit:
